(BULLETIN)
WITH THE U. S. THIRD
ARMY, Metz, Nov. 20.—(INS)—
The French fortress of Metz has been entirely in the hands of the American Third Army, except for sniper fire and resistance in one Nazi barracks, since 3 p. m. this afternoon (10 a. m.
EWT).

Yank forces now are in the Cathedral Square in the heart of the city.

METZ, France, Nov. 20.—
The United States Third
Army today gained control of one-third of the historic fortified city of Metz.

Troops commanded by Lieut. Gen.
George S. Patton, Jr., battled their way forward to grab off additional portions of the city in stiff street fighting against Nazi SS elite guard forces.

Infantry and tanks closed in on the city from all sides as the Americans inside battled the storm troops and members of the Volkstrum who fired from fortified positions.

Push Into Reich

Mechanized cavalry of Gen. Patton's army which crossed into Germany northeast of Thionville pushed three miles into the Reich. Advanced forces reached the outskirts of Kessling, four miles from the city and 16 miles southeast of the city of Luxembourg.

As the Yanks pressed deeper into the city of Metz they found the SS opposing them in each street and each house with the Volkstrum posted inside fortified positions.

First French Army Smashing At Nazis

(Written Especially For International News Service)

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Gen. Charles De Gaulle, speaking from Paris by radio, said the German gates of defense in front of Belfort were bending. His implication was that they are bending in front of French troops.

For a long time the news, in speaking of De Gaulle's soldiers, referred to them as French elements of General Patch's 7th American Army. Of late, we have been hearing of the 1st French Army, and it is entirely probable that the 1st French Army has come into existence.

Probably Colonial

Through many new French divisions are without doubt as of this very time being formed within continental France, it is probable that a large percentage of the French soldiers now fighting towards the Belfort gap are colonial.

The majority of those troops undoubtedly landed on the French Mediterranean coast with Gen.

JAPS REPORT NEW RAIDS ON MANILA

By RICHARD V. HALLER
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

PEARL HARBOR, Nov. 20.—American army infantrymen today held control of Ngerengon Island in the southern Palau, thus averting a brief Japanese threat of a counter-invasion of the strategic Angipago, according to a Pacific fleet headquarters communique.

The announcement also disclosed a new naval bombardment of enemy installations on Iwo Jima in the Volcano Islands some 700 miles southeast of the Japanese homeland.

New Manila Raids

The Japanese Domei agency today reported a new aerial raid against the Manila area of the Philippines. The transmission said that "approximately 300 carrier-based planes" raided "various sectors of the Philippines including Manila, Clark Field, Lipa and Appari" Sunday night. The report was recorded by the federal communications commission and claimed Jap anti-aircraft batteries shot down nine of the attackers. No confirmation of the raid was immediately forthcoming from Pacific fleet headquarters.

Headquarters revealed that elements of the army's 81st division reoccupied Ngerengon last Tuesday after a small Jap force held the island for a week.

The naval smash against Iwo
Jima was executed November 10.
Large fires were started among en-

Japanese Report Attack On Manila

LONDON, Nov. 20.—(INS)—The Tokyo radio reported today that U.
S. planes had made a strong attack on Manila in what apparently was a combined carrier and land-based assault.

"A total of about 100 enemy carrier-based planes attacked Manila in several waves today," the broadcast said, adding that several dozen other planes, including two four-engine B-24s, simultaneously hit nearby Clark Field.

(As heard by the FCC in New York, the Japanese Domei agency reported that "approximately 300 carrier-based planes" raided objectives in "Manila, Clark Field, Lipa, Btangas and Appari.")

There was no official confirmation from any U. S. source.

Sixth War Loan Campaign Opens In Nation Today

Millions Of Volunteer Salesmen Start Drive For 14 Billion Dollars

DRIVE EXTENDS TO DECEMBER 16

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The nation's sixth war loan drive—highlighted by unprecedented steps to boost sales—opened officially today as six million volunteer salesmen combed the United States from coast to coast to sell 14 billion dollars' worth of war bonds by December 16.

The drive's goal calls for sale of five billion dollars in bonds to individuals, while Treasury Secretary Morgenthau urged 27 million Americans on payrolls to buy "an extra" $100 bond during the Nov. 20 to Dec. 16 period.

President Roosevelt keynoted the campaign last night with a radio appeal to the home front for whole-hearted support of the nation's fighting forces.

Support Urged

"In the name of our wounded and sick, in the name of our dead and in the name of future generations of Americans," he said, "I ask you to plow out this furrow to a successful and victorious end."

Wednesday Last Day For Blood Donor Unit Here

Through Saturday 1243 pints of blood had been given to the Blood Donor Service of the Red Cross today, the last day of the drive. The mobile unit was set up at the First Presbyterian church. Saturday's total was 176 pints.

The unit will remain here through Wednesday and the goal is 1800 pints of blood given by the people of New Castle. This will not be reached however until 67 more people volunteer as donors for Tuesday and 121 volunteer for Wednesday.

Because registrations have lagged for Wednesday, the Red Cross today appealed to the men's service clubs, the Lions, the Kiwanis, and the Rotary, to sign up for that day.

However anyone who can be a donor tomorrow or Wednesday is asked to call 5084 for an appointment and help put New Castle over the top in this vital war service.

W. S. Tegge became a seventh time donor at the center on Saturday. Joseph P. Dagnon gave for the fifth time, and Lena Andrews, John D. Chandik, and Michael Diffley became eligible for the "Half-Gallon Club" as fourth time donors.

For donors who wish to make their contributions in honor of men in service and inform them that they have done this, the Red Cross has cards on hand at the center to be filled out by the donor and the Red Cross will see that they are mailed.

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—(INS)—A city-wide hunt for a cold-blooded firebug was launched today as a three-way investigation began into a $30,000 fire which killed seven persons, five of them women, in the three-story Lillie apartments on Chicago's South Side.

The fire broke out simultaneously in the front and rear of the building, sealing scores of tenants, most of them women and children, behind walls of smoke and flame.

More than 60 of the tenants were rescued by firemen who carried them from flame-licked windows to safety. One man saved his 22-month-old son by bridging a dis-

Path Blasted By U. S. Airmen Aids Chinese Advance

KANDY, Ceylon, Nov. 20.—(INS)— Chinese troops scored gains on the vital Bhamo sector of the Burma fighting zone today, following a path blasted for them by U.
S. dive bombers.

Lord Louis Mountbatten's Southeast Asia Command announced that the Chinese 38th Division had occupied positions on the center of the line and in the southwest sector.

U. S. medium Mitchell bombers blasted the station at Man Pwe, seven miles from Lashio, the pre-war terminal of the Burma road.
Bombing from only 30 feet the American fliers almost completely destroyed the warehouse areas.

Other sector of the India-Burma front were quiet, the communique said.

Hongkong Bombed, Japanese Contend

LONDON, Nov. 20.—(INS)—The
New Delhi India radio said today that China-based aircraft, presumably U. S., attacked the Japanese-held docks and shipping installations at Hongkong yesterday.

Jap installations at Port Bayard, on the Luichow peninsula, also were hit, said the unconfirmed Indian report.

MOSCOW, Nov. 20.—Russian troops smashed at major obstacles to the ancient invasion routes to Austria and Czechoslovakia today as they pounded past captured Gyongyoes, 36 miles northeast of the Hungarian capital of Budapest, cracking an 80-mile Nazi defense line.

The communications center of Gyongyoes, together with Hatvan, 22 miles northeast of Budapest, and Miskolc, 80 miles north-east of the capital, some of the main bastions fortified by the Germans as key points in their defense line.

Red Army forces are three miles of Hatvan, communications hub connecting Budapest and Czechoslovakia, and threaten to engulf that town in their irresistible surge.

Gyongyoes was captured by Marshal Rodion Y. Malinovsky's Second Ukrainian army, on the second an-cessful Russian drive that finally liberated Stalingrad, in which Mal-

Wallace Building Sale Is Reported

Structure On East Washington Street At Croton Avenue Purchased From J. S. Wallace

Announcement was made today of the sale of the J. S. Wallace two-story brick structure, 302-308 East Washington street, at the intersection of Croton avenue. The purchase price was not made known.
Three parties were the purchasers.
Gustav Maseizik, who operates a bakery, purchased the corner, 302 and also 304 East Washington street.
He will move his bakery to 302. The lower floors will be entirely modernized.

Lorenzo Fontanelli and Samuel Di Matteo, operators of the Central lunch, South Mill street, purchased 306 East Washington street. The lower floor will also be improved and will house a restaurant.

Angelo and Ernest Frediani, operators of a meat market at 308 East Washington street, purchased the structure they now occupy.

The negotiations for the purchases were completed Saturday.

Many Services For Thanksgiving Here

Thanksgiving church services will be held in a number of churches of the city and county on Thanksgiving Day. For the most part these will be union services in which congregations of several churches will participate.

Downtown Service
Service for the central city churches will be at 10 o'clock on Thursday morning at the First Presbyterian church when Dr. R. M. Patterson, pastor of Central Presbyterian church, will preach the Thanksgiving sermon.

Other participating ministers will be Dr. J. J. McVaine, host pastor, Dr. G. S. Bennett, of the First Christian church, Dr. Burr R. McKnight, of the First Methodist church, and Rev. Oliver W. Hurst, of the First Baptist church.

Special music will be under the direction of Garth Edmundson.

planned at the Edworth Methodist

WAR BOND DRIVE LEADERS

Here is a group of local and state leaders in the Sixth War Loan Campaign which opens today. Reading from left to right they are Joel S. McKee, co-chairman of Lawrence county; G. Ruhland Rebmann, state chairman; Judge W. Walter Braham, Lawrence county chairman; and Robert H. McClintock, chairman for the Fort Pitt area of which Lawrence county is a part.

Sixth War Loan Drive Is Begun In Lawrence Co.

County Campaigners Launch
Effort To Put Over Goal
Of Over $6,000,000

Lawrence County's War Finance Committee started rolling today towards the quota of $6,000,000 in war bonds which must be purchased by citizens and corporations of the county in the sixth war loan campaign which opened today over the entire country.

Under the joint leadership of Judge W. Walter Braham and Joel
S. McKee, workers in six areas of the county got under way selling the bonds that will buy victory over the Axis powers.

Each war bond campaign has seen an increase of the number of individual purchasers of bonds and it is the hope of the local groups that a further increase will be seen. It is felt that every citizen should have a stake in this war and the one sure way of getting a stake in it is to purchase war bonds.

In the main, the methods of solicitation will be the same as in previous campaigns. The house to house solicitation is being stressed this time in order that the widest possible spread of bond purchases may be had.

Bond rallies have been held in some industries of the county,

ROME, Nov. 20.—Nazi forces, hitting back hard in a desperate effort to postpone Allied capture of the cities of Ravenna and Bologna in northern Italy, recaptured Monte Fortino, four miles southeast of Faenza, headquarters of Gen. Sir Henry Maitland Wilson announced today.

The Germans counter-attacked fiercely to retake Monte Fortino which had been occupied by Polish troops operating with the British Eighth Army in the Forl area.

The Poles successfully contained other strong Nazi counter-attacks against Vercellese, a half mile south of Monte Fortino.

Furious Counter-Drive
Indicative of the furious counter-drive by Nazi Field Marshal Albert Kesselring to regain lost ground on the Adriatic, the Germans heavily shelled the Forl area.

British patrols crossing the Ronco river found the Nazis holding posi-

Nazis Report Yanks Advance East Of Aachen

Official Announcement Is Made That French Troops Reach Rhine

METZ COMPLETELY
ENCIRCLED NOW

By THURSTON MACAULEY
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

PARIS, Nov. 20.—American troops 200,000 strong have smashed halfway through the Siegfried line east of Aachen, the Berlin radio reported today on the heels of official announcement that French forces have reached the Rhine at the Belfort gap.

More than a thousand tanks supported American infantry in the new breakthrough, Berlin said, and while precise confirmation was lacking at the headquarters of Gen. Dwight D.
Eisenhower, field dispatches indicated mounting successes for the First and Ninth armies boring deeper into Germany in the area of Geilenkirchen.

Arrival of French troops at the Rhine was announced in an official communique cleared by Gen. Jean De Lattre De Tassigny, commander-in-chief of the First French Army.

Reach Historic Barrier
His forces were the first Allied units to reach Germany's historic barrier against invasion.

"French soldiers will mount guard on the Rhine tonight," the Paris radio said in a special broadcast.

The French swept up through the village of Sappols and drove 10 miles from the town of Delle, 14 miles southeast of the city of Belfort to the Swiss frontier, near Basel.

Stubborn German resistance was overcome at Fort Les Alberts and Essert, which cover the western approaches to Belfort.

The Rhine was reached below Mulhouse after the French were last officially reported within 10 miles of that communications center after taking Dannemarie.

Towns Burning Before Rhine

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—(INS)— Every important town between the American First Army front and the Rhine is burning, fighter-bomber pilots returning from support of Lt. Gen. George S. Patton's men revealed today.

This result of air activity was reported in a broadcast by Blue Network Correspondent Robert Massell at Supreme Allied Headquarters in Paris.

Massell said one returning flyer reported both Stolberg and Duren were aflame, while in the center of Duren, few buildings were left standing. The pilot added that he could see no movement in that city.

One of Pa Newc's boys happened to be out in his backyard Sunday direction. They were flying fairly low and made quite a racket with their raucous honking. He counted 66 in the flock, flying in their cus-

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB TEA EVENT

Members of the Junior Woman's club were entertained at the home of their advisor, Mrs. James W. Hugh, Orchard Way, Walmo, on Sunday afternoon for a Thanksgiving tea. Hours were from 3 to 5 o'clock.

During a musical program recordings from Gilbert and Sullivan's "H.M.S. Pinafore" were enjoyed. Mrs. Hugh, playing her own accompaniment, sang "Sylvia," "Swing Low Sweet Chariot," and "Danny Boy."

Tea was served, with Mrs. William D. Cobau, former sponsor of the club pouring.

New members and Mrs. Hugh and Mrs. Cobau were presented with corsages.

Mrs. Charles F. Greene, Mrs. Russell Remaley, Miss Sally Nitsche, Miss Jayne Shilton, Mrs. John W. Olson and Miss Betty Drio were the committee in charge.

MARINE AUXILIARY
MEETS AT CASTLETON

Gunnery Sergt. Harry T. Burns Marine Corps Auxiliary met Sunday evening in The Castleton. A class of 14 was initiated at this time, with Mrs. Gertrude Whitacre, national aid of Girard, O., sharing Mrs. Elizabeth Paluszak gave a report on the yule boxes sent to U. S. Marines overseas. Also, she told of the holiday boxes packed for patients in the Naval hospital at Oakland, Calif. It was decided to send similar packages to sons and daughters in the U. S. service, stationed within the United States.

Leo J. Gahles was presented with the organizations war bond at this meeting.

Plans were made for a Christmas dinner party on Sunday evening, December 17, at The Castleton. Husbands will be special guests. Arrangements are in charge of the following committee: Mesdames Gladys Winslow, June Crill, Carolyn Whitt, Constance Whitt and Dorothy Kerestey.

JOHNSON TRIPLETS
SIXTH BIRTHDAY

The Johnson triplets, Gertrude Ann, Clara Mae and Thomas, children of Stanley Johnson and the late Mrs. Sophia Johnson, who have claimed a corner in the hearts of the public since their birth in the New Castle hospital, celebrated their sixth birthday on Sunday, Nov. 19. A party was planned to commemorate the occasion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Johnson, 612 East Long avenue, yesterday. Hours were from two to five o'clock.

A gathering of little friends of the trio shared the celebration. In conclusion the serving of a birthday lunch and a trio of cakes topped with glowing, vari-colored candles, delighted the honorees and their playmates.

Many lovely gifts were received by the Johnson children.

SOROSIS CLUB
PROGRAM FRIDAY

Sorosis club will meet Friday afternoon, November 24, at the Y. W. C. A. when Mrs. Roy A. Long will be hostess.

Mrs. Charles G. Long will give the program talk and a drill quiz on motions will be conducted by Mrs. D. B. Woolcock. Roll call will be answered by a highlight of Washington, D. C.

SILVER ANNIVERSARY
AT MONTGOMERY HOME

A delightful surprise was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Vance E. Montgomery of 854 Vogan avenue Saturday evening when their daughter Aleta, entertained informally at their home members of a club together with friends. It was a medium of celebrating the couple's silver wedding anniversary which fell on Sunday, November 19.

Cards were in play with Mrs. John Gaston and S. E. Hague capturing top score trophies. Lunch was a later pleasure. Aiding the hostess was Miss Mary Elizabeth Norris.

Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery were united in marriage on November 19, 1919, in the Central Presbyterian church of the city by the Rev. Nesbitt. The bride was the former Bertha McClymonds. They are parents of three children, Aleta, Jack, who is serving overseas with the U. S. armed forces, and Richard at home. Many lovely gifts were received by Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery.

CASTALDI PEROD
WEDDING SATURDAY

Quiet but impressive was the wedding ceremony performed Saturday morning in St. Lucy's church uniting in marriage, Miss Esther Castaldi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Castaldi, 230 South Liberty street, and Thomas Perod, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Perod, of Youngstown, O.

In the presence of friends and relatives, vows were exchanged by the young couple, at 9 o'clock, with Rev. Fr. Sebastian Ippolito, officiating. He used the single ring service.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was charming in a white satin gown, made entrain with leg-o-mutton sleeves and victory neckline. Her long veil was caught with a crown of orange blossoms, and she carried an arm bouquet of white roses, orchids, tied with satin streamers. Her only jewelry was a gold locket, a gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Ann Domenick, as maid of honor wore a teal blue gown, patterned similar to the bride's. She carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Sam Esposito served the bridegroom as best man.

A wedding dinner was served later at The Castleton, followed by "open house" at the bride's home in the afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Perod departed later on a wedding trip.

Upon their return they will reside on South Liberty street. Mrs. Perod was formerly employed at the Court House, and Mr. Perod is employed at the steel mill. Both are graduates of high schools.

A special event of the afternoon was a call received by the bride from her brother, Pvt. Nick Castaldi, of Ft. Belvoir, Va., who was unable to attend the wedding.

Special guest was Joseph Traver, an out-of-town guest was Frank Conti, of Alliance, O.

The couple received many lovely gifts.

Evening Party

Miss Joanne Gordon of Etna street entertained ten guests at her home on Friday evening, with music and games as the pastime. Luncheon was served later.

Marking each place, a ribbon came down from the chandelier. By pulling the ribbons, the guests each received a gift. The hostess's mother, Mrs. Glenn Latimer, was assisted in serving the lunch by Mrs. Jack Curtis of Sharpsville.

G.G.G. Club

G.G.G. club met Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Scott Lowery, Winter avenue, for five hundred. Mrs. William Aeppel and Mrs. Clara McGehee were prize winners.

In serving a lunch Mrs. Raymond Webb assisted. She was a special guest and received the guest award at cards.

December 8 Mrs. Edward McKisick, Delaware avenue, will receive the club.

O'LAUGHLIN McFALL
WEDDING IN CHURCH

Saturday morning, November 18, Miss Dorothy J. O'Laughlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph O'Laughlin, 1317 West Washington street, became the bride of Claude McFall of 902 Wilmington avenue, formerly a resident of Beaver Falls, at a ceremony performed in St. Mary's church, this city.

Rev. Francis McCarter officiated in the presence of an assemblage of relatives and friends of the couple, vows being pledged at 9:30 o'clock.

For her marriage, the bride chose an aqua crepe street length dress with black accessories. A single orchid formed her shoulder corsage. Mrs. Joseph Jaworski as her only attendant, selected a dusty rose crepe dress. Her accessories were also in black and a cluster of pink roses was worn in a shoulder boutonnet.

John O'Neill served the bridegroom as best man.

After a congratulatory period, the bridal party with their families and close relatives went to The Castleton where a wedding breakfast was served. Covers were placed for thirty, the nuptial theme predominating.

Later, Mr. and Mrs. McFall departed on a week's trip to New York and other points. Upon returning here they will take up residence in their newly furnished home at 807 Locust street.

Both Mr. and Mrs. McFall are employed at the State Highway Department, she being affiliated in the office, and he as a foreman of the tool division.

K. BOALICK FAMILY
TENDERED FAREWELL

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Boalick and children Carole and Bobby, who will leave November 26 for Miami, Fla., to make their home, a farewell dinner was given in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Casey on Huron avenue Sunday evening.

This evening the Boalicks will again be honored when his sister, Mrs. Grace Whitlatch, and father, William Boalick, will entertain at their home on Court street at a similar party.

OPEN HOUSE HONORS
LT AND MRS. M. LOVE

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Love, of 1009 North Mercer street, held open house on Sunday afternoon and evening at a reception for their son, Lieut. Morton Love, and his bride, the former Miss Dorothy Rosenberg of Butler.

Friends who called during the afternoon and evening were served buffet refreshments. Many guests from out of town were present including the bride's mother, Mrs. Minnie Rosenberg, and sister, Miss Libby Rosenberg, both of Butler.

Lieut. and Mrs. Love were married on November 12 at Beth Shalom synagogue in Pittsburgh by Rabbi Goodman, A. Rose.

They will leave tomorrow for Atlantic City, N. J., where Lieut. Love is to report for reassignment. He recently returned to this country from England after completing 35 missions as navigator on a bomber.

Buy Bonds And Hold Them!

"Buy for Keeps" or "Buy to Hold" has been suggested as the slogan for the Sixth War Loan drive, now under way. It is the result of the experience of the last few months, when so many bonds have been redeemed. It is good advice as well as a good slogan.

Many people are making the mistake of spending too much. They assume that good times will always be here, and that they do not need to prepare for the inevitable rainy day. They do not lay aside anything to buy a house or to pay for a new car or to meet dentists' or doctors' bills, or to send their children to college.

There is no law to force people to look out for themselves. There is an unwritten law, however, that all should buy bonds. We should all buy them out of patriotism, because we love our country and it needs our help. The war is far from being won, and there will be other war loan drives after this. As General Eisenhower said in his special plea to the American people: "The fighting man still faces a grim task and he urgently needs much food, clothing and battle equipment that must be bought. The money must be raised and all the fronts depend on you."

But no one should have the idea that in buying bonds he is making a sacrifice. He may be giving up something he would like to have or to do today, but he is preparing a better future for himself and his family. A better future, not in the narrow sense of having more money to spend, but in the larger sense of helping win the war and creating a better world. In that sense he may be saving the lives of his own sons and daughters by helping prevent a Third World War. For this reason, everyone should buy Sixth War Loan bonds gladly, as a personal opportunity.

No Longer The 'Supermen'

Regardless of the mystery concerning Adolf Hitler's status or whereabouts, one fact stands out boldly in the recent German pronouncements and that is the completely defensive tone they strike. No more does Joseph Paul Goebbels prattle about supermen, or the destiny of Nazi Germany to conquer and rule the world, or to wipe out the decadent democracies. Now it simply is a matter of self-preservation. The recent proclamation which was attributed to Hitler went so far as to call for guerrilla fighting against the Allied forces. Hitler, of course, is still moaning that the bolsheviks are going to take over Germany with the consent of the democracies, ignoring the point that Russia's disposition toward the German nation actually is softer than that of Britain or the United States.

But it is doubtful if the Germans, as a people, will follow their leaders' pleas that they emulate the "heroic" Japanese. The Germans may be political fanatics, but they are not known for carrying fanaticism to the point of self-destruction. Heretofore, the Germans have quit at the moment when their own land was in danger of devastation.

Perhaps a good guess is that most Germans would prefer to vote for self-preservation the easiest way right now and are stopped only by Himmler's private army of torturers and executioners. There is no point in underestimating the strength of this Himmler army. It has kept Germany fighting for some time and it may succeed for several more months. But it is being rocked and blasted on the western front as never before.

Japan Far From Beaten

When the great American victory over the Japanese fleet off the Philippines was announced by Washington some time ago, there were many civilians who concluded that the Japanese war might end even before the war in Europe. It was generally assumed that the victory had materially shortened the war. Some observers concluded that the Dutch East Indies as well as the Philippines had been cut off from Japan.

But, according to Rear Admiral A. Stanton Merrill, director of public relations for the Navy, the victory did not have any particular effect on the length of the war with Japan. He points out that the threat of the might of the Japanese fleet had not held up American progress in the Pacific.

It is obvious that if the Japanese, following the German pattern, plan to fight until the last man, the armies of Japan will have to be defeated. Even though landing troops on Japanese-held territories might be easier as a result of the destruction wrought on the Japanese fleet, the armies of the enemy must still be met. If Japan were merely an island empire, the annihilation of its entire fleet might prove disastrous. But Japan is a continental power as well, capable of continuing to fight on the mainland of Asia.

Admiral Merrill contends that in the war with Japan "we have just reached the period of hardest fighting." Pointing out that the chief problem is maintaining supply and communication lines, he says "we have to build more ships and more munitions."

Vinegar Joe's Verdict On GI Joe: He's Tops

It may be accepted, from the record, that when General "Vinegar Joe" Stilwell says a fighting man is good—he's tops. And that is what the famous military leader, just returned from China and restlessly waiting in his California home for further orders, says about GI Joe. Americans may study with pride the verdict rendered by this blunt old soldier on the character and quality of the young men of this Nation he and other generals have been leading in action in China, India, the Southwest Pacific, North Africa and Europe: "My hat's off to this generation. I'm for them."

He speaks accurately for our fighting men in this war as belonging to a particular generation. Aside from some age variations, younger or older, the bulk of those involved in this struggle, and winning it slowly but surely, are men of 20 to 28 or 30.

This is the generation which, to some extent at home, and to a wide extent abroad, was regarded as drifting, ineffective, generally off grade. It's true we have long since had innumerable reasons for abandoning such preconceptions—and our enemies have likewise.

But it's well to read General Stilwell's observations that these American soldiers are well trained, amenable to discipline, with a clear understanding of the war and their job in it, and that they might have had better preparation before the war "but the stuff is good." That is why they're beating Japs and Germans, largely trained from childhood for battle service.

They'll go on beating them, to the finish, if we back them up in every way demanded by this death grapple with desperate and still powerful foes.

If the Japs send a peace delegation to Moscow, it will be the signal for a sneak attack on Vladivostok.

These must be trying days for the Son of Heaven. Every time he counts his generals and admirals he comes up a few short.

Sharp Divergence In Democratic Party

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The sharp divergence between the two major wings of the Democratic party is nowhere more evident than the contest over the selection of the members of the three-man board that will direct disposal of surplus war property.

It is not surprising that the contest should focus here, because the policy followed by this board can shape the future direction of our economy. The board will dispose of a 50 billion-dollar chunk of goods and war plants, and even in rich America that isn't easy.

Conservative Wing

The conservative wing of the party, represented by James F. Byrnes, the president's No. 1 assistant, and Bernard M. Baruch, favors speedy sale of all surplus property with the least possible effect on existing industry and trade. They want to make way for private industry as quickly as possible.

Baruch has been the chief backer of Will Clayton, who was in charge of surplus property disposal until congress changed the pitch and created a three-man board. Clayton is holding down the office, but only until the new members are named. Repeatedly, Baruch has affirmed his faith in Clayton as a capable business executive who can do a complicated and important technical job.

Liberal-Leftist Wing

The Liberal-Leftist wing of the party, with some strength among western senators and with organized labor, has concentrated much of its fire on Clayton, a longtime associate of Jesse Jones, as the symbol of reactionary business. They want surplus government property disposed of in such a way that monopolies will be broken and price levels sent downward.

It's hard to see how President Roosevelt can reconcile these two opposed points of view. While his natural inclination would probably be to go along with Byrnes and Baruch, he is just now very much in the debt of those who are urging him to name progressives to the three-man board.

For this reason the president may turn to compromise candidates, relating both those preferred by the Liberals and by the Conservatives. Several new names have come into the field of speculation.

May Get Post

The strong possibility is that Brig. Gen. William O'Dwyer, now assigned to the foreign economic administration, will get one of the three posts. O'Dwyer brought back from Italy a report on conditions in that tragic country which persuaded the president to make a change in policy.

As district attorney in Kings County in New York, O'Dwyer broke up the vicious Murder, Inc., thereby making a national name for himself. He has frequently been mentioned as a possible Democratic candidate for governor of New York in 1946 to run against Governor Thomas E. Dewey, who it is assumed, will inevitably seek re-election.

According to present intention one of the Clayton-Jones candidates—Sam H. Husbands, aide to Jones in the RFC—will get another of the three places. And the third member of the board will be James Shepley, a Los Angeles lawyer who has given strong political support to the Roosevelt administration.

Too Political

Aside from the qualifications that O'Dwyer may possess, it seems to me that his appointment will have too political a look. It's not the kind of a job that should be awarded on any basis except that of capacity.

Two other men are also mentioned as possibilities. One is David Lilienthal, head of Tennessee Valley authority. Lilienthal has had experience in reconciling the differences of a three-man board, having gone through one major upset in TVA. The other possible candidate is Robert G. Hutchins of the University of Chicago, who has been proposed in the past for several war jobs.

The sad thing is that this should have got into controversy at all. The stakes are bigger than any single group. A blunder might make the difference between prosperity and depression or worse.

AUTUMN'S END

A touch of sadness marks an autumn day.
As if all things were murmuring: "Farewell!"
Not long, not long before we go away!

A sadness much too deep for words to tell.

Though field and hill are decked with red and gold
And every tree a royal mantle wears,
'Tis like the going of a loved one old.

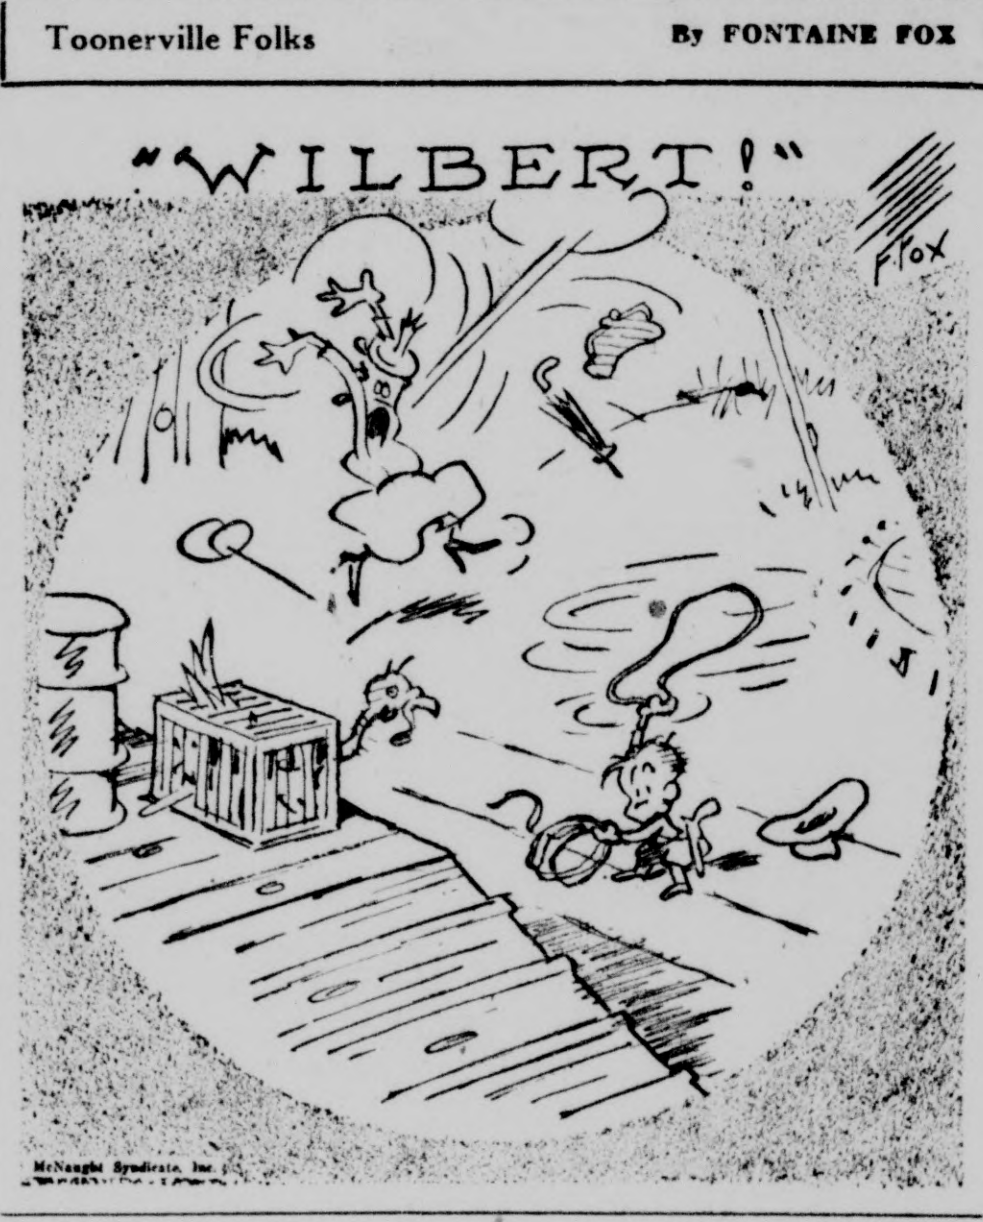

When death has passed the door
And climbed the stairs,
Still, in this final loveliness there glows

The hint that nothing living ever dies;
That elm and maple, hyacinth and rose,
After the sleep of winter, will arise!

Demands Increasing For Cabinet Changes

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20. An interesting post-election development is the manner in which some of the more ardent of Mr. Roosevelt's fourth-term supporters appear to have swung around to Governor Dewey's campaign insistence that "it is time for a change."

OF COURSE, Mr. Dewey thought the change should begin in the White House, and to that the left-wing friends of the President strongly dissented. So, too, did a sufficient number of voters to give Mr. Roosevelt a large electoral majority, thus extending his lease for four more years. The changes which some of his very strong supporters are now urging are in his Cabinet. Mr. Dewey urged these, too, but not the same changes nor for the same reasons.

FOR EXAMPLE, the first change which Mr. Dewey said he would make involved the removal of Mr. Ickes from his position as Secretary of the Interior. He regarded Mr. Ickes as an obnoxious, vituperative, warped old man who should be the first to go. But that isn't the idea of the administrationists now calling for Cabinet changes. They think Mr. Ickes is nice. They don't think he should be the last to go. Those they want to get rid of, primarily, are Secretary of State Hull and Secretary of Commerce Jones. On this they are fairly unanimous—and only a little less so concerning Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins, though the reasons they advance for dropping the Messrs. Hull and Jones are quite different from those for dropping the lady.

IT SHOULD be understood that this movement for Cabinet changes comes exclusively from the more advanced New Dealers who believe in the New Deal philosophy and consider the election meant that a large majority of the people want that philosophy extended and composed. Many who voted for Mr. Roosevelt solely because they did not want to risk changing the Commander in Chief before the war is over will dissent from that notion. Nevertheless, it is strongly held by the more articulate New Deal journalistic and political spokesmen, which is one reason they are so anxious to get rid of Mr. Hull and Mr. Jones. By the "inner circle" neither has ever been regarded as a "true New Dealer." They are the conservatives of the Cabinet and, as such, it is argued have no place in the fourth-term administration. This, of course, sweeps aside the fact that Mr. Hull and Mr. Jones are the two outstanding members of the President's official family, more highly regarded throughout the country, more esteemed and respected in Congress and just as loyal to Mr. Roosevelt. In particular, Mr. Hull's conduct of the State Department, his high character and unwavering principles have been an asset to the Roosevelt administrations and were an asset in the recent campaign.

YET, the advanced thinkers want to throw them out not only because they are conservative but because they want to insure a place for Vice President Wallace, who still remains their hero. Mr. Roosevelt has indicated that he will have an important post for Mr. Wallace, but his liberal friends seem set upon in his position to know are convinced—first, that unless his health should compel him to resign, Mr. Hull will continue to serve in his present position; second, that should he resign, Mr. James F. Byrnes, rather than Mr. Wallace, would succeed him. This would suit the liberals not at all, in that they regard Mr. Byrnes as much the same kind of Democrat as Mr. Hull and Mr. Jones.

SO THE clatter for Mr. Wallace as Secretary of State continues but the chances of its becoming effective do not seem great. As to Madame Perkins, the drive against her comes largely from friends of insiders who want her job filled among them by Mr. Daniel Tobin, head of the teamsters' union. The name of Mr. Sidney Hillman is not mentioned in this connection, not because it is denied that he has priority over any other labor man but because it is too small a place for Mr. Hillman. As head of the CIO's Political Action Committee, Mr. Hillman will wield more influence and be of greater importance than in any Cabinet post. That is the argument and, perhaps, it is a sound one.

AT ANY rate, the "liberal" elements are now concentrating on these three changes. It may be they will succeed; but there are several reasons for being skeptical. One is the well-known reluctance of the President to make changes. In the case of Madame Perkins, for instance, this kind of drive was made both in 1936 and 1940, with no effect at all. In the cases of Mr. Hull and Mr. Jones there is, first, the fact that they are the two best equipped men available for their jobs; second, the fact that, in dealing with the new Congress, Mr. Roosevelt will very greatly need men like Mr. Hull and Mr. Jones, whose words carry weight in that body. The only change that seems sure to be made is that of Mr. Hannegan for Mr. Walker as Postmaster General, and that is because Mr. Walker is genuinely anxious, for personal reasons, to get out. If there are any others, they are likely to be for the same reasons.

War Between Russia And Japan Seems Near Expect Labor To Demand Increases In Pay
Krug Warns That War Programs Are Lagging

By HELEN ESSARY
(Central Press Columnist)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Premier Josef Stalin's public classification of Japan as an "aggressor" nation along with Germany is hailed in Washington as virtual confirmation of persistent rumors that Russia will declare war upon the Nipponese after the Nazis are defeated.

Stalin made his forthright statement—the most positive declaration he has ever made on the subject—in a speech before thousands of his followers on the 27th anniversary of the Red revolution.

The Russian leader used the same opportunity to praise the progress of international collaboration toward post-war problems with special emphasis on the favorable developments emanating from the Dumbarton Oaks security talks.

To international observers Stalin's twin declarations have served greatly to clear the air of suspicion of Russian motives in the post-war world. On occasions, Soviet actions have puzzled and sometimes deeply disturbed diplomats in London and Washington.

Labor To Raise Fuss

The discreet silence which organized labor observed during the weeks just prior to the election is expected to be scrapped now that the balloting is over.

CIO leaders and some AFL chiefs, in addition to the wage issue, labor is expected to open up on demands for establishment of a National Production Council—composed of labor, industry and government—to guide the country's economic policies during the reconstruction and post-war periods.

Two Jobs for Jones

Informed sources predict that War Food Administrator Marvin Jones will become secretary of agriculture after the first of the year when President Roosevelt announces his new cabinet.

Jones probably will continue as WFA chief, holding down both the top jobs in the agriculture department. Secretary Claude A. Wickard of Indiana is expected to return to farming—his profession.

The World and the Mud Puddles

WHAT IS ISOLATION?

I think the definition of Isolationism, as given by Colonel McCormick of the Chicago Tribune hit the nail on the head. He said that the word is defined in another word—"Patriotism." The word has been bandied around by politicians until it has become an epithet, designating poor citizenship.

There are a great many intelligent citizens of this country that do not like the idea of mixing the affairs of the United States with the affairs of all the European States. Think of the many different angles to governmental forms and conditions presented by the European nations, to say nothing of Japan, China, Central America and South America. With reference to British ideas of world trade domination, Mr. Churchill has made it very plain that Great Britain has no idea of abandoning her Colonial possessions, her close association with Canada, Australia, New Zealand and India—all her worldwide Empire. Great Britain is frankly Capitalist and is not prepared to be the Soviet Republic on the contrary, is frankly Communist, and so for the most part is the Republic of China. As for the other European nations—Italy, France, Hungary, Poland, Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia, the Balkans, Norway, Sweden, Finland, Belgium and the Netherlands, the people of each of these States have their own ideas of government. Great Britain and the United States are probably the only people on the face of the earth that permit the citizens of these two nations to determine for themselves the kind of government they desire. All the rest are more or less autocratic. Stalin, for instance, is just as much a Dictator as Hitler is reputed to be. In South America there have so-called Republics, but they are dominated not by elections, but by force of arms—everyone of them from Mexico Central America and South America, down to the Horn. If the Military doesn't like the set-up they chance it, just as they have recently done in Argentina. And what sort of a world government can be expected to be evolved out of this war?

The keenest cartoon, I believe, published this year was the one disavowing Stalin with a nice fat rabbit in his arms, staking past a dais, on which were seated President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill with their mouths watering for a rabbit stew, and Stalin saying, "I like my rabbit fried."

How are all of these elements to be integrated into a Confederation of the World? The intelligent Isolationist or Patriot, whichever you want to call him, is one who believes that the United States is not called upon to finance any Confederation of the World.

Incidentally, I suppose that the principles of the Monroe Doctrine will be treated in about the same manner as the Supreme Court of this nation has treated all legal precedents.

LOOKING AT LIFE
By ERICH BRANDEIS

With the recent death of Dr. Alexis Carrel in Paris, the world has lost one of its great scientists.

But great as Dr. Carrel was as a surgeon and biologist, he was a living example of the complete misunderstanding of the simple facts of life that remoteness from people and seclusion within one's self can breed.

Scientists look at the world under a microscope instead of seeing it with a vision made dearer by personal observation and participation in the business of living.

Cube roots and slide rules may establish many an impressive theory but they don't explain the wondrous workings of the human mind and of the human spirit.

In his hour of death I say no notorious book, "Man the Unknown," Dr. Carrel wrote:

"The democratic creed is now breaking down under the blows of the experience of nations.

"The feeble-minded and the genius should not be equal under the law. The stupid, the unintelligent have no right to a higher education, and it is absurd to give them the same electoral power as fully developed individuals.

"The sexes are not equal, and women should be educated only to serve as the bearers of children."

Five Absurd Statements

Here are a few paragraphs are five absurd statements that make you wonder where feeble-mindedness stops and genius begins.

This famous man, winner of the Nobel Prize, lived in America for 35 years and had every opportunity to study American processes of politics and living and American women.

Yet his assertion that there is no equality of sexes and that women should be nothing but breeding animals is as stupid as the late German emperor's edict that women should confine their activities to "church, kitchen and children."

I admire scientific achievement and give it full credit for the world's progress (including poison gas, robot bombs and submarines).

But I warn you to beware of scientists when they begin to philosophize about human behavior or the art of living.

No human soul has yet been analyzed in a test tube. No mathematical formula, no chemical experiment has yet been able to explain the love of a mother for her offspring, the fervor that inspires patriotism, the ambition and industry that bring achievement and success.

Dr. Carrel was able to give life to the heart of a chicken—but neither he nor any of his contemporaries or successors could, or will, create or explain the human spirit or the mysterious workings of the mind.

I for one would hate to live in a world where every emotion, every incentive, the beauty of love and loyalty and faith can be measured and tabulated and manufactured out of liquids and gases and minerals.

I want to look at the sun and the moon and at the fields and trees and flowers in awe and in reverence.

You keep your knowledge, let me have my dreams!

NERVES IN YOUNG CHILD

Dear Dr. Myers: We have tried your suggestions and have had some success in teaching our 11-month-old on the meaning of NO. So far we have tried it only with those things that are dangerous to him in any way. We never shout at him but simply say no. Nine out of ten times he puts his little face in his hands and cries heartbreakingly.

"He also cries like this if anyone speaks loudly to him. If any one should laugh loudly he jumps and cries." He also cries when anyone else cries or when two persons are playfully wrestling. What should I do about it? I am enclosing a self-addressed envelope. Please send me your bulletin, "Eating Problems." He refuses to drink milk from a cup."

The Doctor's Reply

In part, this mother was answered as follows: The bulletin on eating is enclosed. Please don't be so insistent that your baby drink from a cup. Like many other mothers, you are too much concerned over this matter. Once or so each day, offer him milk in a cup at the beginning of his regular meal. Have the cup full so he can drink it easily. Don't force this against his strong resistance but keep on trying at times when you are very calm and he most likely to cooperate.

Should his resistance increase with your efforts, cease trying at all for a few weeks. If you still fail entirely after four or five months, have the bottle entirely disappear. Then when he gets hungry enough he will take the milk from the cup. It might be necessary to keep all other foods from him then until this problem is settled. Even during this ordeal, merely offer the milk to him without coaxing or forcing him.

Obviously your baby has a very sensitive nervous system. Since you have successfully trained him to

Tacloban Proves Genuine Surprise To Newspapermen

Rather Modern Town Is Discovered
In Capital Of Leyte
Island

By HOWARD HANDLEMAN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

THE BIG TOWN, Leyte, P. I., Nov. 4.—(Delayed)—Some of us came to Leyte's big town, Tacloban, this afternoon, and gawked.

The girls not only wore shoes here, they wore shoes with high heels. They weren't really high, I guess, but they were raised enough to look high to us.

We were from the sticks. Dulag, Abuyog, San Pablo, Burauen, Dagami the poor little towns in the south where the ladies wear no shoes and the little kids have no pants.

And the sticks in Leyte are just as different from the city as the Missouri Ozarks are from St. Louis. Why there's even a place in Tacloban, Pepp's typewriter repair shop, that is operating already. It's a good bet there wasn't even a typewriter in Dulag or Burauen.

Modern Stores

In Julia there's a tiny frame building with the words "A Filipino Store" painted on its wall. In Tacloban, Gran Capitan is lined with professional signs such as "Mercedes Teatro," "Manila Cleaners and Dyers" and "Varsity Beauty Shoppe." Yes, they spell it "shoppe."

There's a sidewalk on either side of the Gran Capitan. There are driveways into garages. Packards, Fords, Pontiacs and other automobiles are being rented out. Houses are rented and there are houseboys to clean up, their mothers to launder.

Then, of course, there are the girls. Why I felt like kicking up my heels when I saw a girl in a blue silk blouse that sported a real honest to goodness sorority pin.

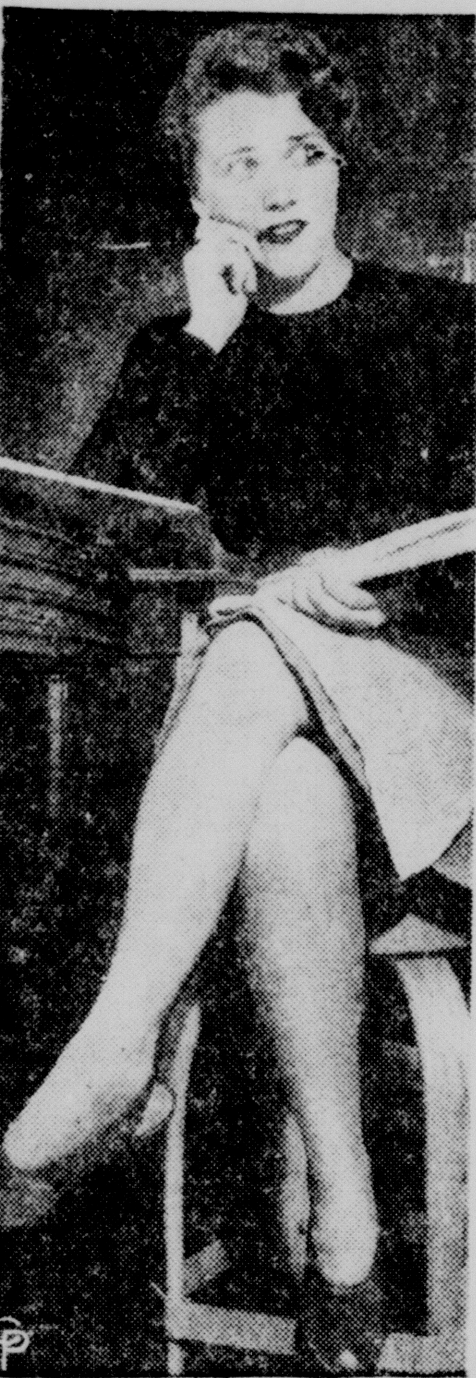

There were page-boy boys. Some girls had their hair pinned right up on top of their heads.

And their dresses. It looks like springtime. Blues, yellows, whites, pinks, all the cute little Maytime frocks that add beauty to American streets and parks when the trees blossom.

Things aren't like that back in the sticks, where we came from.

They don't even have a tourist business back there. Here in Tacloban there's a kid hawking Jap money and postcards on every street corner.

would, however, prefer to skip the secretaryship since it means he will have to resign his federal judgeship. He could hold the WPA job because it is a "temporary" agency but a cabinet post is "permanent" and it's against the law to hold two such positions at one time.

WPB sources emphatically deny reports that Chairman J. A. Krug has abandoned his firm stand on gradual reconversion to civilian production in favor of Army demands for increased munitions output.

Reports that Krug was "slipping" gained currency after he repeatedly warned newsmen that lagging war programs, including heavy trucks, heavy tires and munitions, were threatening to jeopardize Allied military operations.

Krug assumed the WPB post after Chairman Donald M. Nelson, who urgently demanded more civilian production, without interference with the war effort, resigned. But as WPB sources see it, Krug is not opposing reconversion. They insist that he is seeking to placate the military by emphasizing its problems while soft-pedaling civilian production for the time being.

Merely say it is as information about the few new things he must not touch or have, in quiet tones that express no emotions. I found this very effective with my granddaughter at 15 months of age, after she had learned without doubt to avoid a few forbidden things. Then try harder to think of more things he may have and will enjoy.

SISTER ENTERTAINS FOR BRIDE-ELECT

Mrs. Roy Strobel, Marshall avenue, was hostess at a shower and announcement party at her home Sunday evening for her sister, Miss Lillian Southern, bride-elect of December.

Piano music played by Mr. Strobel furnished entertainment for the guests, followed by games later. Prizes for the latter were awarded Mrs. Jack Harper and Miss Ruth Cole. The guest of honor was presented with a number of lovely gifts.

Mrs. A. Southern and Mrs. Lewis Mathews aided the hostess in serving refreshments.

Miss Southern, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andel Southern of Pennsylvania avenue, announced December 16 as the date when she will be married to Flight Officer Keith Herbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Herbert, of Wampum.

They will be married at an open church evening ceremony at the Central Christian church.

P. O. Herbert is stationed at Hot Springs, Ark.

Guests from Wampum included Mrs. Frank Herbert, Mrs. B. Houk and Mrs. C. Leopardo.

Knight-Hoover Wedding

Attractively attired in an ensemble of brown, Miss Nancy E. Knight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sheddick Knight of Sharon, became the bride of Fred W. Hoover, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Hoover, New Castle.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. Edward Shaffer at his residence in East New Castle, at 6:45 Thursday evening, November 16.

The bride was formerly employed at the Johnson Bronze company, and the groom is an employee of the Phillips garage. The couple will be at home to friends at 713 Superior street.

Party For Naval Couple

Honoring Petty Officer and Mrs. Jack Dinsmore, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lincoy entertained 25 guests at a family tureen dinner at their home on Graceland road Saturday evening.

Games were played during the evening and the honored couple received many lovely gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dinsmore, Jr., and daughter Linda, Len were out-of-town guests from Windham, O.

P. O. 3-c Dinsmore, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dinsmore of Norwood avenue, will return to his base at San Diego Wednesday evening. He expects to be assigned to sea duty before long.

Mrs. Dinsmore, the former Ellen Koonce, will remain in New Castle.

City Employees Ask Wage Raise
Firemen, Garbage and Street Workers Request City Council To Raise Pay
New Castle Fire Fighters Union, No. 160, today petitioned city council for a wage increase of 20 percent and members of the streets and garbage bureaus who are members of the State, County and Municipal Workers of America also petitioned for a wage increase. Recently the city police asked a 20 percent wage increase.

The Fire Fighters Union communication was signed by Local President Clyde Rohrer and Secretary Ralph Montgomery. Joseph R. Adams, representative of the S. C. and M. W. of A., addressed council relative to the Street Workers and Garbage bureau employees.

He asked the garbage truck drivers be raised from 75 cents to 90 cents an hour and helpers, 71 to 85 cents an hour and also a 48-hour work week with time and a half for all work in excess of eight hours in any one week with time and a half pay for all holiday work. He asked for a raise from 71 to 90 cents per hour for furnace men at the incinerator with 10 hours per day at straight time and time and a half for all work in excess of 10 hours in any one day and on holidays.

Presents Rates Asked
The scale requested in the street department follows: Special operator 81 to 91 cents an hour; truck drivers, 76 to 86 cents per hour; laborers 71 to 81 cents an hour; cart men 65 to 75 cents an hour and sewer men, 76 to 86 cents an hour. An eight-hour work day and 44 hours per week was asked for all except cart men. A six-hour work day was asked for them and also a 42-hour week. The union asked time and a half for any work in excess of the foregoing hours and time and a half pay on holidays. The raise asked for the street department clerk was from $136.50 to $155.00 per month.

Two weeks vacation with full pay for all employees and 30 days sick leave with pay for all employees of both department was also asked. Adams pointed out that street workers are unable to work during inclement weather and their average pay is $27.93 a week, which he said is not very much. He told of the hearings now in Washington concerning labor rates.

Council referred the matters to committee for consideration prior to final budget plans.

The Fire Fighters Union communication was signed by Local President Clyde Rohrer and Secretary Ralph Montgomery. Joseph R. Adams, representative of the S. C. and M. W. of A., addressed council relative to the Street Workers and Garbage bureau employees.

He asked the garbage truck drivers be raised from 75 cents to 90 cents an hour and helpers, 71 to 85 cents an hour and also a 48-hour work week with time and a half for all work in excess of eight hours in any one week with time and a half pay for all holiday work. He asked for a raise from 71 to 90 cents per hour for furnace men at the incinerator with 10 hours per day at straight time and time and a half for all work in excess of 10 hours in any one day and on holidays.

Presents Rates Asked

The scale requested in the street department follows: Special operator 81 to 91 cents an hour; truck drivers, 76 to 86 cents per hour; laborers 71 to 81 cents an hour; cart men 65 to 75 cents an hour and sewer men, 76 to 86 cents an hour. An eight-hour work day and 44 hours per week was asked for all except cart men. A six-hour work day was asked for them and also a 42-hour week. The union asked time and a half for any work in excess of the foregoing hours and time and a half pay on holidays. The raise asked for the street department clerk was from $136.50 to $155.00 per month.

Two weeks vacation with full pay for all employees and 30 days sick leave with pay for all employees of both department was also asked. Adams pointed out that street workers are unable to work during inclement weather and their average pay is $27.93 a week, which he said is not very much. He told of the hearings now in Washington concerning labor rates.

Council referred the matters to committee for consideration prior to final budget plans.

Consistory Party Saturday Night Is Attended By Throng

Splendid Program Of Entertainment
Winds Up Fall Reunion
Activities Of Consistory

With around 1,200 persons in attendance, the customary reunion dinner party Saturday evening in the Cathedral brought to a close the fall reunion of the Valley of New Castle Consistory, which was one of the finest gatherings held in many years by the local Scottish Rite Masonic bodies.

Following the dinner a splendid stage show was presented in the auditorium, with a high-class program of entertainment. This was followed by dancing in the ballroom.

Will Make Plans For Deshon Party

Final organization plans for the proposed Christmas party for the wounded veterans in Deshon Annex are expected to be drafted Tuesday night, November 21, when a meeting of representatives of civic, fraternal, labor and patriotic organizations will meet in the Castle Hotel at 8 o'clock. If the tentative plans materialize, it is expected a chairman will be named, other officers and committee members and that the budget will be set.

The proposed plan is to tender the men in the Annex a Christmas party about December 21, which will be in the nature of a Christmas gesture from the City of New Castle. The organizations in question have been notified of the meeting but if there are organizations which have not been notified, they are asked to send representatives to the meeting.

Report U. S. Tanks Enter Saint Die

LONDON, Nov. 20.—(INS)—American tanks have entered Saint Die, in the Vosges, 35 miles from the German frontier and 40 miles southwest of Strasbourg, the German DNB agency said today.

"The battle in the Lorraine and as far as the Swiss frontier continues with the same violence," DNB said.

Started when men workers declared that work given to women should have gone to them, a nine-week strike of a sheet metal workers plant in Dublin has been settled.

CHEYENNE BOY GETS 300 GIFTS

Lad Not Expected To Live To December 25 Has Christmas On Sunday

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 20.—(INS)—Three-year-old Forest "Nubbins" Hoffman was resting today at his Cheyenne home, resting and getting to know each of the more than 300 presents he received from all over the nation at his special Christmas celebration yesterday.

Because doctors have said that Nubbins, suffering from an incurable bladder ailment, cannot live until Christmas really comes, the day was moved up a month so the tot could actually know the meaning of the day.

The first thing that met the child's eyes when he was awakened by his mother was the blue spruce Christmas tree covered with lights and decorations. Piled high around the tree were presents from almost every state and from as far away as Mexico City and Montreal.

URGES SEAL PURCHASES
HARRISBURG, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Pointing out that more than 18,000 men were rejected from military service because of tuberculosis, Col. Henry W. Shoemaker, Altoona publisher, today called upon Pennsylvanians to support the annual Christmas Seal sale.

Be Quick To Treat Bronchitis

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes.

Creomulsion blends beechwood creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics.

No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. (Adv.)

Hundreds Go Through Blood-Donor Experience

Women in overalls, with their plant badges still on college students, several blind persons, nervous firsttimers, and donor veterans have all gone through the blood-giving process at the mobile blood bank in the First Presbyterian church.

They've all lined up, waiting more or less patiently to have their temperatures taken, their pulse beats counted, and their blood pressure checked, and they've all lain on the long tables watching the jar on the next table fill up with the blood of the person lying there.

The only trouble has come, the volunteer workers tell you, when someone has been rejected because of physical standards set up by the National Red Cross. Even though they are rejected for their own good, people almost invariably become indignant, "they feel good, they have relatives overseas, and they want to give blood, by golly!"

Another cause of trouble is the new regulations requiring everyone to drink a glass of water before the donation. Again, set up for the good of those giving blood, this regulation invariably draws turned-up noses, the question "do I have to?"

And then there's the problem of getting the donors to wait twenty minutes before going out onto the street again. Most of them accept the rule and sit down for some more waiting, but others manage to slip out, or get caught in the act of trying to go.

They all "feel all right; why should I stay?" or perhaps they "have an appointment" or "some work to do" or "have to stop at the grocery store."

Sitting down again, they decide that if they have to stay they might as well have a sandwich and some coffee, even if they have to drink another glass of water first. And some even stay for a second cup of coffee.

No matter how they take it, patiently or a little bit disgruntled, they all come out looking just a little bit prouder than they were before leaving behind them a pint of dark red blood that will eventually end up in the veins of someone else far away.

Some Military Ballots Cannot Be Counted Here

Every "break" legally possible to give soldiers in the count of the military ballots will be given in Lawrence County, but there are some military ballots which will not be counted, the county commissioners sitting as the board of elections said today. The ballots in question are those which have not been sworn to or have not been signed, both of which requirements are specifically called for in the military ballot act.

If a ballot is marked with an X or a check or a circle, it will be counted the board declared. Whether it is marked in pencil, indelible pencil, ink or crayon it will not be counted are those which do not have the jurat executed, that is sworn to by an officer, or is not signed. In all there are about 92 such ballots which have been set aside by the board of elections.

The military ballots will be counted on Wednesday November 22, but any military ballots received that day will also be counted if they are postmarked before midnight of November 7, the board said.

Report Hitler Is Visiting Japan

LONDON, Nov. 20.—(INS)—The London News Chronicle carried a report today that Adolf Hitler now is visiting Tokyo and quoted as its source for the story a Dutchman who reached allied lines last night. The purpose of the reported visit was said by the newspaper to be to induce Japan to throw her weight into the European war by striking now at Soviet Russia in the east.

The first operating table ever built for large animals was installed in the animal hospital at the University of Pennsylvania.

Pvt. Paul F. Kearns Killed In Holland

Well-Known West Side Soldier Meets Death In Holland, Parents Informed By War Department

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick F. Kearns, of 18 North Lee avenue, received the sad message over the week-end that their son, Pvt. Paul F. Kearns, aged 21 years, had been killed in action in Holland on November 3, only four months after going overseas.

Pvt. Kearns had been in service since February, 1943. His death followed by only eight days that of his cousin, S. Sgt. Eddie Todd, who died of wounds received in Germany on October 26.

He was born in New Castle on August 14, 1923, and was home at the time of his last birthday prior to leaving for overseas. His parents received one letter from him written in each of England, France, Belgium and Holland, the last message being written on October 29, five days before he met his death.

Besides his parents he leaves the following brothers and sisters: Sgt. Patrick F. Kearns, Jr., with the U. S. Air Corps at Galveston, Tex.; Pvt. Raymond Edward Kearns, stationed at Camp Wheeler, Ga., and Eileen and Patricia Ann Kearns, at home. His father is a veteran of World War I and a member of Perry S. Gaston Post, American Legion.

Belfort itself, columns which stayed behind were rapidly closing in on Belfort, however. They occupied Belfort, three miles southwest of Belfort, after a day's fighting.

The resort town of Gerardmer, three-quarters destroyed, was taken and the French also liberated La Bresse.

In the north inside the Reich American and British armies punched deeper along the roads to the Ruhr and Rhineland.

The advances of the American First and Ninth armies and the British Second Army eastward along the front from captured Gellenkirchen down through sectors southeast of Aachen were pressed behind furious new Allied aerial assaults.

Bombers Lend Aid

Formidable aerial formations of bombers and fighters swept out from Britain to lend their weight to the mounting offensive against the westwall.

The appreciable forward advance of the French who by-passed the heavily defended city of Belfort came as the American Third Army smashed farther into the Reich northeast of Thionville.

(Unofficial Swiss radio reports said the French were battling inside Belfort.)

Mechanized cavalry units fighting with Lieut. Gen. George S. Patton's Army drove three miles into German to reach the outskirts of Kessling, only four miles from the Saar river.

Metz Surrounded

Metz itself was completely surrounded and the Yanks inside gained control of one third of the city in bitter hand-to-hand fighting against SS elite guard forces.

(London reported a Paris radio announcement saying the Third Army had taken Charleville, 12 miles northeast of Metz.)

The American Seventh Army immediately north of the German-held battle area simultaneously developed a strong attack along a 40 mile front.

The Seventh, commanded by Lieut. Gen. Alexander M. Patch, liberated Reichenbourg, 17 miles east of Lunerville. A German counter-attack in the vicinity of Reichenbourg was repulsed and the town was captured.

Northeast of Baccarat the Americans liberated the railway. Repaix, Harboure, Nonhign, Parax, Montreux and Bremeniz.

RUSSIAN TROOPS SMASHING AHEAD TOWARD AUSTRIA

approaches to the Mura and Buick mountains and seriously jeopardizing the position of those not completely cut off.

Soviet big guns pounded Hattvan from the southwest, south and northeast as Russian troops poured over Boldog, three miles from Hattvan, capturing that outpost. Southwest of Hattvan, Russian troops were unsuccessful in their effort to cut the Hattvan-Budapest railway where German-Hungarian defense was especially stubborn.

The Russians were only nineteen miles from the Danube as they crashed to within four miles of the rail hub of Aszod, 15 miles north-east of Budapest. If Soviet troops can reach the Great river, which is one of the most important communication arteries of Europe, they will isolate Pest, eastern half of the capital city.

Far to the north, on the Baltic front, Russian troops were reported to have landed amphibious forces on the Sore peninsula in an all-out drive to free the Estonian island of Oesel of its remaining Nazi defenders. Oesel, 1,000-square mile island, is in the gulf of Riga and has been held by German troops bitterly resisting for more than a month, during which time they have been surrounded and cut off.

Candidates Given Income Tax Blow

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—(INS)—The Supreme Court today, in a 5 to 4 decision, dealt a blow to political candidates by holding that they cannot deduct campaign expenditures in calculation their federal income tax. The decision was decided on appeal of Michael F. McDonald, former judge of the Common Pleas court of Luzerne county, Pa. The claim was denied by the Third Circuit Court of Appeals whose decision was affirmed by the Supreme Court.

Furloughs Earned By Years Of Service

Lawrence County Men Return To Country After From Two To Five Years Overseas

Six Lawrence county men are returning from overseas service to the third service command, according to information from command headquarters in Philadelphia.

The men are: Sgt. Joseph L. Larosa of the AAF, returning from four years in the central Pacific theater of operations to Fort Dix, N. J., prior to visiting his parents who live on RD 2.

Joseph H. Marcella of the medical corps, returning from five years in the central Pacific to visit his parents at 1101 Springfield street.

Pfc. Milton H. Rogovin, AAF, returning from almost three years in the southwest Pacific theater of operations, his parents live at 1103 Agnew street.

Pfc. Leonard Claypool, armored force, returning from two and one-half years in the southwest Pacific area. Now at Fort Dix, N. J., he will visit his parents at 390 1/2 East Washington street.

Cpl. Daniel Synbala, AAF, returning from over four years in the central Pacific. He lives at 136 Line avenue, Ellwood City.

First Sgt. George Bliss of the AAF who has been serving in the European theater for over two years. His parents live at 606 Second street, West Pittsburg.

GABLE'S WAR FILM NOT FOR THEATERS

WASHINGTON Nov. 20.—Clark Gable's technicolor film of Flying Fortress over Germany will not be shown in movie theaters because Office of War Information critics have ruled that it is largely duplication of "Memphis Belle."

OWI officials said, however, that the seven-reel film will not be junked, and Gable fans will have an opportunity to see the movie star in action as a genuine Air Force Captain. The film will be made available soon in 16-mm. size for showing by clubs, war plants and private organizations.

Mother Gets View Of Her Quadruplets

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Mrs. Kathleen Cimmiello finally has seen her quadruplets—and she thinks they're cute.

In fact she thinks they "get cuter every day," it was disclosed at the lying-in hospital in Philadelphia which announced the 30-year-old mother saw her quads last Thursday for the first time since their birth Nov. 1.

The babies—Kathleen, Maureen, Eileen and Michael—now are breathing normally without extra oxygen. However, all are still living in incubators, with synthetic humidity and controlled heat.

"It's just God's mercy that anything so small could live," said Mrs. Cimmiello. "I love them all and want to take them home as soon as possible."

Forty-Three Veterans Placed During Month

Forty-three veterans of the present war were placed in jobs by the New Castle office of the U. S. Employment service last month, George R. Gettings, manager of the office, announced today.

Of these men, one took a position in the clerical and sales field, sixteen were placed in skilled jobs, nine in semi-skilled jobs, and seventeen in unskilled jobs and other work.

"With the present wide range of job openings now available to veterans of this war, we are in a splendid position to serve returning members of the armed forces," Mr. Gettings said. "We are most happy to help the boys and girls secure suitable work on their return to civilian life."

COMPANY F IS INSPECTED HERE

Regimental Commander Makes Inspection At Armory On Sunday Afternoon

Company F, 16th Infantry, Pennsylvania State Guard, and the 16th regiment band were found to be satisfactory Sunday afternoon, Nov. 18, when Colonel Robert G. Woodside, regimental commander, inspected the organizations and also the physical properties of the organization and the Joseph V. Cunningham armory. With Colonel Woodside were Major Frank W. Hill, the company commander, Lieut. Robert F. Galbreath, Jr., and the local armory board.

"The New Castle unit is in good shape," said Col. Woodside. "Considering the fact that the Army has taken men from the company constantly, and replacements had to be made, the progress in military proficiency has been marked. The band is a fine organization and ranks with any of the other bands of its kind in the state."

Roster Short

"Company F needs about 21 men to fill its roster," said Col. Woodside. "Service in the state guard is not only important service to the state, but it gives a man an opportunity to do a home front job as a military man."

"I am interested in seeing the 16th regiment not only the state guard regiment in the state, but in the United States. By next inspection time I hope the roster of the company will be up to peace-time strength."

Col. Woodside addressed the regiment and the band, after the inspection. He told the men that four awards would be made in the future, one for the company with the best drill attendance average, one for the company nearest its peacetime strength, one for the company showing the best care of equipment, and one for the company showing the highest proficiency in rifle fire. The awards will be in memory of the late Generals Wiley, Hill, Richards and Smathers, all of them leading figures in the Pennsylvania National Guards at various times.

The inspection of the units and the armory completed the inspection of all companies in the 16th regiment by Col. Woodside.

Yanks Restore Chapel Memorial For Comrades

LONDON, Nov. 20. — (INS) — Members of a United States Eighth Air Force Flying Fortress base have restored a beautiful 14th century English chapel as a memorial to their comrades killed in action.

The memorial, St. Andrew's Parish church at Oudenharn, Norfolk, was dedicated recently by the Bishop of Norwich, assisted by Chaplain Charles E. Smith, of the American 96th Bombardment group. Officers and men of this group, commanded by Colonel Robert W. Warren, of Big Springs, Texas, contributed $3,000 for the restoration of the chapel.

Pope Confers With Nazi Ambassador

ROME, Nov. 20. — (INS) — Pope Pius XII held a lengthy audience today with German ambassador to the Vatican Weizsacker, who was said to have informed the pontiff of the latest developments inside Germany.

One topic of Weizsacker's report to the pope, it was said, was the mysterious and widely discussed matter of Adolf Hitler's health.

BATTLES THREATEN CONGRESS SESSION

Postwar Public Works And Extension Of War Powers Act In Controversy

By FRANK B. ALLEN (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20. — Threatened battles over extension of the second war powers act and legislation calling for two billion dollars in postwar public works projects loomed today as the seventy-eighth Congress moved into the second week of its final session.

Both houses were expected to convene briefly today and then recess until tomorrow out of respect to Sen. Ellison D. "Cotton Ed" Smith (D) S. C., who died last Friday. Beginning tomorrow, however, Congress will attempt to complete its program in time for the Christmas recess.

The House will tackle the controversial war powers act and the crop insurance measure and the Senate will consider the one billion dollar house-passed flood control bill. Subsequent legislation on the calendar includes the 500 million dollar Robinson road bill in the House and the 500 million dollar river and harbors measure in the Senate.

House leaders expected general agreement on extension of the war powers act, which gives the President basic authority over rationing and control of war-vital materials, but anticipated some battles on various sections. Chairman Hobbs (D) Ala., of a House judiciary subcommittee, is expected to call up the measure within a few days.

SAYS HE'S ROBBER

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. — (INS) — Thomas Reed, 24-year-old Negro heavy-weight known to eastern boxing fans as Saint Thomas, languished in jail today after accusing himself in the Elizabeth St. station house yesterday of about 50 holdups in Dayton, O., between 1936 and 1941.

JUST A 'WATCHDOG'

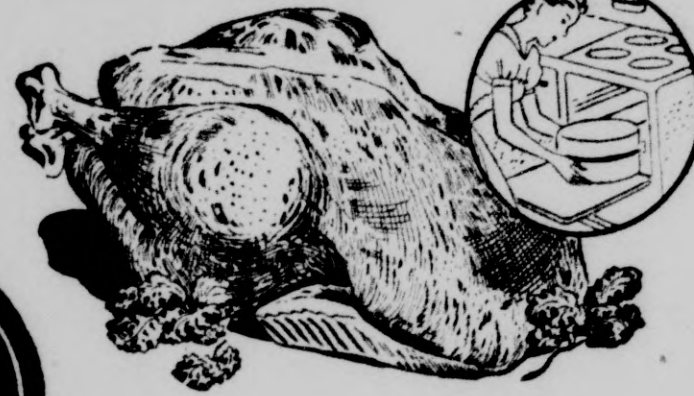

WALLA WALLA, Wash. — (INS) — Roy Anderson can testify from experience that being a "watchdog" on a hunting trip is no fun. Anderson and three companions trekked painfully to a remote area to get their bucks. Once there he discovered that he had left his ammunition at home, and his gun was of a different calibre from those of his mates.

NEW DEFROSTER

AIR SERVICE COMMAND, England — (INS) — Windshield frost, a bugaboo which frequently obscured the vision of pilots flying high in the sub-stratosphere, has been whipped by hot air, it was disclosed today. The hot air, filtered up from the engine and spread over the windshield between two plates of glass, effectively keeps frost from forming.

LOANS—$50, $100 OR MORE ON YOUR SALARY, CAR OR FURNITURE

How to borrow without endorsers and repay in instalments

If you run short of cash, let Household Finance loan service help you. To apply for $50, $100 or up to $300, you simply give Household a few facts about yourself and your job. You need no endorsers or guarantors, no recommendation from employer or friend to get a signature or salary loan, a car or furniture loan. If you can make monthly payments, don't hesitate to apply to Household for whatever amount you may need.

Payments to fit your budget

Notice that you may repay in 3 to 12 monthly instalments. Choose a short schedule if you can so that your loan will cost you less. At our rate of 3% per month a $100 loan repaid in six monthly instalments of $18.46 each costs $110.76. If repaid in four monthly instalments of $26.90 each, a $100 loan costs only $76.60. A $50 loan repaid in three monthly instalments costs $30.40. Payments shown include principal and charges. You pay no fees or extras of any kind.

Quick phone service

You may borrow at Household to pay old debts, taxes, doctor bill, make repairs, help relatives—for almost any purpose. Visit Household Finance today. Or if you need cash in a hurry phone your application—we can have your loan ready when you come in.

FIND HERE THE CASH LOAN YOU NEED
Choose your monthly payment here
	3 payments	4 payments	6 payments	9 payments	12 payments
$ 25	$ 8.84	$ 6.73

These payments include all costs if payments are made monthly on the same day of each successive month. Earlier or larger payments reduce the total charges and later or smaller payments increase them.

Household's only charge is the monthly rate of 3% on that part of a balance not exceeding $100 and 2% on that part of a balance in excess of $100.

It is figured on actual unpaid principal balances as reduced by payments. There are no fines, fees, discounts or other hidden charges.

EARLY ORDERING ASSURES DELIVERY OF FERTILIZER

The fertilizer situation in 1945 will depend somewhat on progress of the war. If hostilities continue at the present rate in Europe, demands of munition makers for nitrogen and sulphuric acid may interfere with a full supply of nitrogenous fertilizer and superphosphate.

Potash is expected to be adequate unless exports are made to England. Labor shortages in fertilizer plants and transportation from the factory to the farm seem likely to be problems.

Most manufacturers of superphosphate and mixed goods have their bins filled with well-cured goods at this season of the year. In order to supply the spring demands for fertilizer, as much as possible of this material must be moved out to farms and local storage. Plans can then be kept running and the help employed in refilling the bins.

Farmers should order their fertilizers without delay, and should take delivery when the material is available. Fertilizers which are stored in dry places and in low piles should not become hard.

BASIC DRESS ALLOWS FOR SEVERAL CHANGES

Is there one dress in your wardrobe that needs only a few well chosen accessories to make it like new? One well-planned outfit is more useful and gives more satisfaction than several hit or miss costumes.

This one background dress may be any rich color or it may be black. It will be a simple dress made with a neckline that lends itself to at least two changes of accessories. Sleeves this year are of any length with the three-quarter length the most popular.

Suppose the dress has a high close neckline, moderately narrow skirt and untrimmed bodice. You can add some bright color by making an over-blouse or waistcoat of plain, striped or plaid material. Popular styles of over-blouses include a waist length sleeveless top with wide shoulders; a hip length jerkin; a waistcoat, collarless or with matched tailored collar. If you wish to repeat the color and material elsewhere, you may make a bag or use to line a dark bag.

The other change for this background dress may be done with costume jewelry. A necklace or large pin with matching bracelet is a suggestion.

Why not have one piece of crisp washable neckwear if your dress will take it? This with washable white gloves will give you an outfit for special occasions and later will give the costume a spring-like touch.

If you need a new handbag and gloves, select them with this one dress in mind.

PLANNING SAVES TIME, EFFORT FOR DAIRYMEN

Dairymen can do themselves a good turn if they plan carefully for the routine of winter chores with a view to saving time and labor.

Trucks can be used for handling feed and ensilage to make work easier. Too many dairymen still carry ensilage in bushel baskets. If they would stop to figure out how far they walk and how many miles of walking an ensilage truck would save in six months, there would be a lot more such trucks built and used regularly.

The same thing applies to grain feeding. Many dairymen would save 75 to 100 miles a winter with such conveniences. Other conveniences will save time and steps.

One of these is a place upstairs for mixing grain and a feed chute to the alley in front of the cows. This bin can be built with compartments for different types of feed, and if kept off the floor about three feet with a hog self-feeder type of opening at the bottom will eliminate stooping.

DIVORCE REFUSED

In an opinion handed down Saturday Judge John G. Lamoree refused the divorce petition of Robert W. Brenner from Patricia Brenner. Indignities to person were not not proven, the court said.

VOTE COUNT ADVANCES

Saturday at noon it began to appear that the official recount board would be ready for the military ballots on Wednesday, November 22. A corps of clerks of the county commissioners office has been aiding the board for the past few days due to the excess work piled on the board through the necessity of opening so many ballot boxes.

BEAVER TWP.

CLUB CELEBRATES ANNIVERSARY

Big Beaver Grange Ladies club celebrated the 17th anniversary of its organization November 15. The club became an auxiliary to Big Beaver grange on that date in 1927.

A one o'clock luncheon was served from tables, decorated in the Thanksgiving theme and the club colors, blue and gold. Hostesses in charge were the first half of the industrial committee. A large cake, decorated appropriately and made by the first president, Mrs. James Beatty, was the centerpiece.

Mrs. Frances Fruit, retiring president, introduced the new president, Miss Grace E. McHattie, who welcomed members and their guests. Other new executive members, Mrs. Robert Jackson and Mrs. W. W. Willis, Mrs. R. S. McAnlis, and Mrs. Chester Leslie, were presented.

Mrs. K. T. Yahn, a guest from Wampum, gave two readings. Pep singing, led by Mrs. F. W. Jenkins, was enjoyed. Mrs. C. W. Stewart, Mrs. R. S. McAnlis, Mrs. Jenkins and Mrs. Robert Jackson, accompanied by Mrs. Fry sang several numbers.

A sum of ten dollars has been donated to the local American Legion auxiliary to make up Christmas boxes for sick and wounded soldiers in hospitals in this country.

Next meeting will be December 19, when the program will be in charge of the charitable, hospital-ity and friendship committee, of which Mrs. E. C. Kennedy is chairman. Mrs. Wayne McHattie, Mrs. Norma McCune, Mrs. Emma Miller and Mrs. Viola Baker will be hostesses.

INGERSOLL CLOCKS with the TIMEX* heart

WHAT'S THE TIMEX* HEART?

It's a wartime technical discovery made by The United States Time Corporation. Sorry, can't tell you more just now. But you'll be hearing a lot about it. And only the handsome new Ingersoll Clocks will have the remarkable Timex* Heart.

WHAT WILL THE TIMEX* HEART DO?

It will make the new Ingersoll Clocks practically soundless . . . more accurate . . . sturdier . . . longer-lived. More than just a new movement, the Timex* Heart is a whole new principle of making wind-up alarm clocks that will put the new Ingersolls years ahead in accuracy and reliability.

WHAT'S IN IT FOR ME?

The Timex* Heart will save you time . . . trouble . . . money. It eliminates most common clock failures. It gives the new Ingersoll Clocks a tested accuracy of 99.93% . . . an altogether new high standard of accuracy in a clock that everyone can afford.

WHEN CAN WE GET THEM?

Very soon now. But even if it's several months before your dealer has the new Ingersoll Clocks . . . be patient. You'll want several of these handsome, accurate new Ingersolls for your home. The incredible Timex* Heart will be the pulse of tomorrow's timelier life. WELL WORTH WAITING FOR!

New Castle Soldier Serves With Escort On Front In France

(Special To The News)

SIXTH ARMY GROUP, France—Pfc. Albert H. Oesch, R. D. 7, is one of a group of officers and soldiers, all veterans of combat in North Africa, Italy, and France, who conduct "escorted tours" for visitors to the Sixth Army sector, in which are located both the American Seventh and the French First armies, in France.

It is the task of those selected soldiers to guide the many distinguished guests along the battle front and through Sixth Army Group installations. In addition, they "meet and greet" all visitors, provide them with transportation, bullets and food and take care of them as long as they are in the area. Among the persons for whom they have acted as guides are General George C. Marshall and General Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Many Problems Arise On Roasting Turkey

How to cook a turkey and what kind of stuffing to put inside the bird is a subject that is good for lively and prolonged discussion either among cooks or those who do their best work on a turkey after it is on the table.

Older cooks and cook books say to allow 20 minutes a pound in a hot oven. Most widely advised method now is to roast in a moderate 300-degree oven, allowing 25 minutes a pound for a small turkey under 12 pounds, 20 minutes per pound for one larger than that.

How to place the "piece de resistance" of the Thanksgiving dinner in the roasting pan is a nice point. Breast up, but covered with a well-greased cloth? Breast down for all but the last 20 minutes of cooking? Chunks of bread tucked under either wing will keep him on an even keel in the roasting pan if you try this. Another suggestion is the "paper bag method" where the bird is tucked into a well-greased paper bag along with a small amount of water. Most authorities agree on roasting uncovered with varying frequencies of basting.

But before the cooking comes the mixing of stuffing and then the actual stuffing. Many experts advise stuffing the turkey the day before it is to be cooked, both cavity and crop, and then put in the refrigerator overnight. This method lets the stuffing have a chance to mellow, they say.

As for kinds of stuffing, there are those that like it dry and fluffy and lightly seasoned with sage. Others like a moist bread stuffing. Some think oyster dressing is tops, made either with bread crumbs or cracker crumbs. Chestnut stuffing is a gastronomic special, and so is southern style sweet potato and sausage stuffing.

One recipe labeled Middle West turkey stuffing runs the gamut from three pounds of fresh ground pork as a base, through 16 other ingredients and seasonings. There is also a Swedish style turkey stuffing, and numerous other variations such as crab meat turkey stuffing, are dear to the hearts of gourmets.

Robert E. Payne Is Reported Safe

A letter has been received by "The News" from a former resident, Mrs. Edna B. Payne, now living in Baltimore, Md., telling of the rescue of her son Q. M. 2-C Robert E. Payne. He was one of the many survivors of the U. S. S. Princeton, which was sunk on October 21 during the invasion of the Philippines. Q. M. Payne writes, "Well, safe, give my best regards to all my friends." He was assigned to the Princeton the day she was launched October 23, 1942, at the Navy Yards, Philadelphia. Following the invasion, he was picked up by a destroyer.

A few days ago Mrs. Payne received a letter from her son, a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Burleson, of 708 Blaine street. He states again all is well, and he will tell his mother an interesting story when he sees her.

★ 6th WAR LOAN DRIVE STARTS TODAY ★

IT WILL TAKE MOUNTAINS OF EQUIPMENT TO LICK THE JAPS . . .

YOU saw your War Bonds in action in France. You saw how American leadership and courage, backed by a never-ending stream of equipment, won France in record time.

But we've still got a fight on our hands! We've still got to put the finishing touches on the Nazis and go all-out on the tough, brutal enemy in the Pacific. More and more of every kind of equipment is needed. We need B-29 bombers. We need a flood of them. And every B-29 bomber costs $600,000 in War Bonds. We need millions of gallons of high octane gasoline. We need ambulance planes that cost $125,000 each. We need amphibious tanks, airplane carriers and a never-ending stream of special costly equipment to win the final victory.

It costs billions of dollars a month to fight Japan

Our job at home is clear and unmistakable. Just so long as an American faces a Japanese gun, we must keep on buying War Bonds. Each and every one of us must invest in at least one extra $100 bond. We're out to finish the guy who started the fight. Let's go! Sign up for extra bonds on the payroll plan. Welcome the Victory Volunteer when he or she calls at your home. Go to your bank, or wherever you buy War Bonds—and back the Sixth for final Victory!

And here are 6 more reasons for buying at least an extra $100 WAR BOND in the 6th!

1. War Bonds are the best, the safest investment in the world!
2. War Bonds return you $4 for every $3 at maturity.
3. War Bonds are as convenient as cash—and increase in value to boot!
4. War Bonds mean education for your children, security for you, a nest-egg to fall back on, come what may.
5. War Bonds help keep down the cost of living.
6. War Bonds will help win the Peace by increasing purchasing power after the war.

Seventh Ward

Seventh Ward
Bond Drive Starts

Today marks the beginning of the sixth war loan drive in the nation. During the next four weeks the citizens of the nation will again be asked to make their pledge for victory; again they will be asked to make an effort to secure an "extra" bond.

The seventh ward has always come through in these drives with an excellent record. There is no limit to the goal during the present war bond drive! It is the hope of the volunteer workers that the cooperation previously received will be continued in this drive, our most important drive.

Mrs. Angeline Casarucci, 208 West Madison avenue, has again been named chairman of the seventh ward. She is being assisted by Mrs. Peter Perrotta and precinct leaders with their corps of workers.

INTERMEDIATE CLASS
MEETS ON TUESDAY

Members of the Loyal Intermediate class of the Mahoning Methodist church, taught by Mrs. C. M. Booher, were entertained on Saturday afternoon in the home of Theresa Sparano, 220 North Liberty street.

Plans were made for the next social meeting of the class on December 16, when Margaret Glassell of Newell avenue will be hostess.

Games were the diversion of the afternoon, with prizes being awarded to Ruth Anna Daniels, Maxine Taylor, Norma Pearce, Phyllis Wilson, Elizabeth Tackitt, Sharon Lynn Booher, Margaret Glassell and Mrs. Booher.

A delicious lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. P. A. Sparano, assisted by her daughters Philomena and Theresa.

Mrs. Carmella Rotelli, 207 South Ashland avenue, has been admitted to the New Castle hospital.
G. H. Cook of 405 Newell avenue has been confined to his home with illness for about a week.

Murray Calls For Changes In W.L.B.

Says Either Personnel Or Policy Of Board Should Be Changed

CHICAGO, Nov. 20—President Philip Murray called today for a complete change in either the policy or the personnel of the War Labor Board in his report to the seventh annual constitutional convention of the Congress of Industrial Organizations in Chicago.

The CIO president was equally bitter toward the waning 78th congress of which he said:
"The majority of the 78th congress had no desire to achieve an equitable stabilization program. Congress itself was concerned much less with the unparalleled production record than with certain temporary shortages of materials."

"Such reports were the signal for attempts to shackle labor by variations of national service legislation," Murray's report demanded wage rate increases at once and accused the War Labor Board of blocking wage hikes under the "little steel" formula. He charged the WLB with "procrastination" in unfreezing wages and expressed his displeasure at its delay in meeting CIO demands.

Notwithstanding his complaints of allegedly unfair treatment at the hands of the administration, he reaffirmed the CIO's "no-strike" pledge.

Electric facilities are now being installed on from 20 to 30 farms weekly in the United Kingdom.

HOME ECONOMICS GROUP

Members of the Home Economics group met Tuesday evening with Mrs. E. F. Munn. Miss Laura Phillips, extension leader, gave suggestions for remodeling. Several aprons were shown by the ladies and patterns were exchanged.

Next meeting will be with Mrs. Carl Phillips on December 12, when slips will be made.

TENT HALL NOTES

Miss Ruth Baird visited recently with friends in Pittsburgh.
Mrs. Earl Cover and Mrs. Gladys Wagner of Poland, O., visited recently with the former's aunt, Mrs. F. A. Montgomery.

Gus List returned home Monday from the Southside hospital in Youngstown after being a patient there for several weeks.
Pvt. Martha Smith of the marines returned to Conoco, Va., Wednesday after spending a furlough with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chandler and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Welch, Youngstown, and Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Vernon, Lowellville, were Wednesday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hodder of Pittsburgh announce the birth of a daughter November 10, according to word received here from Mrs. Molly McCurdy, formerly of this vicinity.

Several women gathered Thursday at the home of Mrs. F. A. Montgomery for Red Cross sewing. A number of garments were cut out to be made at the next King's Daughters meeting.

The pre-school section of the P. T. A. will meet November 30 at 8:30 o'clock in the evening with Mrs. J. W. Slaven. Problems relating to these children will be discussed and anyone having children will be welcomed.

'HOT' PICTURES

AIR SERVICE COMMAND, England—(INS)—Heated cameras are now taking the "hot-test" pictures of the war, it was announced today. Combat photographs, taken by the automatic cameras in Allied war planes, were being ruined by fogging of the negative at extreme altitudes—until maintenance experts designed a camera heating system. Now, hot air from exhaust pipes is distributed evenly by means of a pump, over the exterior and into the inside of the cameras. The result: perfect pictures.

Ohio Telephone Operators' Strike Again Extended

Spreads To Youngstown And Salem, Twenty-Five Cities Now Affected

CLEVELAND, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Long-distance telephone communications were further crippled throughout the state today as Youngstown became the 25th Ohio city to feel the effect of an operators' strike against the Ohio Bell Telephone Company.

Youngstown operators and plant workers walked out at 3:30 p. m. yesterday along with employees at Salem. Participating in the action were 325 operators and about 190 other employees.

Earlier, 1300 Cleveland operators struck and Saturday night 850 Cleveland maintenance men went on strike.

Earl Culp, editor of the monthly bulletin published by the Ohio Federation of Telephone Workers, estimated there are now approximately 4,000 operators and 1250 plant workers on strike. Culp said he expected maintenance workers, installation men and construction workers throughout northeastern Ohio to join in the work stoppage.

Meanwhile, both company and union officials said there was little hope for an early settlement of the dispute which has been referred to the National War Labor Board.

The strike began Friday when nearly 400 Dayton operators walked off the job in protest against a company policy of paying out-of-town operators expense money in addition to their base pay. All other strikes throughout the state are in sympathy with the Dayton union's argument. Thus far, the strike has caused little interruption of the company's service.

Japs Continue To Make Claims

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Japanese Imperial headquarters claimed today that Jap "special-attack" suicide planes sank three Allied transports Saturday and "damaged and sea-borne" four others in Leyte gulf in the Philippines.

According to the Jap assertion, heard by the FCC, the three transports, said to be each of 10,000 tons, were sunk in "bodily" crashes by the suicide corps.

Another Jap claim said that similar planes set an aircraft carrier and warship ablaze and sank two cruisers east of the Philippines.

None of the Jap propaganda stories has been substantiated by any official Allied source.

Getting A Turkey? Here's Your Ceiling

With Thanksgiving three days away, the price panel board gave out the ceiling prices on all retail turkeys, young and old, heavy and light, alive or fully dressed.

In retail stores of OPA groups I, II, III, the ceiling price on young fully dressed turkeys weighing 13 pounds or under is 62 cents; between 13 and 16½ pounds the price is 61 cents and over 16½ pounds the price is 60 cents.

On old, fully dressed turkeys sold in the same stores, the ceiling price is 59 cents for birds weighing 13 pounds or less, 58 cents for those between 13 and 16½ pounds and 57 cents for those over 16½.

For live turkeys, the retail ceiling price on all weights is 45 cents a pound, and 42 cents for an old one. Ceilings in group IV stores, which are usually the chain stores, very slightly from the ceilings in other stores.

Government Will Battle Inflation

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—(INS)—A vigorous reaffirmation of the administration's "hold the line" anti-inflation policy was believed today to preclude any general wage increase for labor until V-E Day.

Economic Stabilization Director Fred M. Vinson reaffirmed the "hold-the-line" program on the heels of a report by a presidential committee that the wartime cost of living has risen 20 to 30 per cent.

The first public post-election pronouncement by a top administration official on the price-wage question came as the CIO and AFL opened their annual conventions in Chicago and New Orleans on a keynote for higher wages.

Both organizations resolved to renew with greater emphasis their demands that the "little steel" wage freeze be revised upward.

What People Say

(International News Service)
LONDON—Prime Minister Winston Churchill: "If our dreams for Zionism are to end in the smoke of an assassin's pistol and our labors for its future to produce a new set of gangsters worthy of Nazi Germany, many like myself would have to reconsider the position we have maintained so consistently and so long in the past."

WASHINGTON—Philip Murray, president of the CIO: "Purchasing power in the hands of the worker is imperative to keep our American economy operating in the postwar world."

WASHINGTON—Vyacheslav Molotov, Soviet commissar of foreign affairs in a message to Edward R. Stettinius Jr., acting secretary of state: "I express my firm conviction that the continuation of the cooperation established between our peoples in the days of the war will be a most important factor in the preparation and safeguarding of a lasting and stable peace and the security of peoples."

Ellwood City Loses Title To Donora In Stadium Battle 13-0

Ellwood Outscored, But Not Out-Fought, In Classic At Pittsburgh, Saturday

Ross And Towler Score Touchdowns On Long Runs, First Downs Even

(Special To The News)
PITTSBURGH, Nov. 20.—Ellwood City High's Wolverine football team, a hard-fighting machine from end to end, and in it's great backfield, saw its dream of a class AA WPIAL grid championship for the first time in 19 years drift away Saturday afternoon at the Pitt stadium here, before a crowd of 10,000 fans, when an alert Donora High Dragon, taking advantage of two breaks, scored a 13 to 0 win.

Donora in winning the class AA title for the first time in the history of the school did it on two long runs, one 56 yards by Roscoe Ross, in the first period, and on an 85-yard dash by Dan Towler in the fourth quarter. Outside of these two runs, Ellwood's favorite sons played the Monongahela entry even, the first downs being 11 apiece.

Ellwood dominated the first half of the game and led 7 to 0, but in the second half Ellwood City came out and battled the Dragons all over the lot, and won the plaudits of the fans for their game comeback, but an alert Donora secondary prevented Ellwood from clicking with any of its famous passes, and finally with the game just five minutes from the end, Towler leaped high in the air, speared a pass tossed by Tilla from the Donora 18 and sped for his touchdown.

It was the first defeat for Ellwood in ten starts this season and ninth straight win for the Dragons, who amassed a total of 324 points for the year against 44 for the opposition. Ellwood held the Donora team to its lowest score of the year. So intent on its defensive play was Donora that not a first down was made the entire fourth period, while Ellwood dominated the offensive picture.

Real Heart-Breaker
It was a heart-breaker for Coach Howard Gills and his assistant, Ted Wallace, and for the Ellwood boys who played their final game of their careers, all but Desport and Chiaro. It was a happy day for Coach Jimmy Russell of Donora as he saw his fast-moving Dragon grab the 1944 championship for the Monongahela valley, supplanting the great Brownsville team of 1943.

Army And Navy Pile Up Large Scores Saturday

Army Whips Penn 62 To 7, Navy Humbles Purdue 32 To 0, Will Clash December 2

OHIO STATE KEEPS 1944 SLATE CLEAN

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Army and Navy are primed today for their climax clash at Baltimore after having sharpened their fangs this week-end on opponents who were only comparatively inferior Penn and Purdue can by no means be classed at mediocrities, but Navy thrashed Purdue, 32 to 0, with ridiculous ease and Army battered Penn, 62 to 7, despite fumbles and flappings by the Cadets throughout the game.

Although Army brought its total to a staggering 481 points to the opposition's 28 in eight games, Navy looked smoother, more effortless. The Army-Navy contest could draw 150,000 if there were a stadium big enough to hold the horde. Playing against teams distinctly rated as underdogs, Navy still drew 30,000 in Baltimore stadium and Army attracted 66,000 at Franklin Field in Philadelphia.

Ohio State Wins
In the mid-west, Ohio State kept its eight-game record clear of defeat when it stomped Illinois, 26 to 12, before the largest crowd of the football season, 83,627.

Notre Dame, stinging after defeats by Navy and Army, rolled over the Wildcats of Northwestern 21 to 0. The Irish were led by Jim Brennan, a 155-pound mite, who exploded to two touchdowns.

On Saturday, Pennsylvania will meet Cornell on Franklin Field and will attempt to recover some of their football reputation that was blasted by Army 62-7. While the Red and Blue were suffering the worst defeat in 59 years, Cornell nosed out Dartmouth 14-13.

Lehigh, trailing under a 64-0 lacing at the hands of Lafayette, journeys to New Brunswick for a game with Rutgers. Penn State fresh from a 39-14 victory over Maryland, meets the University of Pittsburgh in the steel city. The Panthers were whitewashed 47-0 by Indiana.

Starnthorn's gridders, who turned a place kick into victory over Princeton, will battle Ursinus at Collegeville.

Pitt And State Battle Saturday
Teams To Meet In Stadium For 44th Time, Panthers Have Series Edge

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Nov. 20.—One of the oldest and most spirited football rivalries in the East will be resumed Saturday at Pittsburgh when Pitt and Penn State clash for the 44th time since 1893. The game will close the season for both eleven.

Both teams will depend largely on freshmen, since abandonment of the marine unit at Penn State left the Nittany Lions with only a handful of navy trainees. Pitt, on the other hand, has relied on civilians throughout the war period.

Two Games Tied
While on the losing end in four of their last five meetings, the Panthers still top the Lions over the years with 24 victories to 17. Only two games—in 1920 and 1921—ended in ties.

Penn State, denied victory in the period from 1919 to 1939, broke the spell with a 10-0 win in the latter year. In 1940 the Panthers came right back and smashed an undefeated season for the Lions, only to bow to the Nittany eleven in their three succeeding games.

Bob Higgins, Penn State coach, has figured prominently in the last five victories, coaching the Lions to victory in 1939, 1941, 1942 and 1943, and captaining the eleven that brought the Lions their 20-0 victory in 1919.

FIRST PLAYER BACK
First and only prewar grider to return to Penn State during the 1944 season was Nick Ranieri, reserve back. He was tendered a medical discharge after two years in the Army Air Corps.

PIPPA PASSES
Freshman Andy Pippa's passing success at Penn State this fall prompted many football writers to recall Robert Browning's famous poem.

STEWARDS CALLED INTERFERENCE BY OUTSIDE HORSE

A SPECTACULAR FINISH at the Agua Caliente, Mexico, track as Germantown, extreme outside, with Willie Couture up, moved over on the nags next to him. Couture drawing an interference penalty and a $25 fine. The winner, however, was Red Berry, on the inside, but finish was close. (International)

Packers-Eagles Have Pro Lead

(International News Service)
The Philadelphia Eagles who have been threatening right along to take the Eastern Division championship in the National Football league were alone at the top of the heap today in their division after administering a crushing 37 to 7 defeat to the Washington Redskins.

While the Eagles were doing this to the Redskins before 35,540 fans at Griffith stadium in Washington, the New York Giants at the Polo Grounds in New York packed with a record crowd of 36,481, were upsetting the Green Bay Packers, 24 to 0.

The Packers, although soundly whipped nevertheless backed into the Western Division championship since the Chicago Bears, their nearest rivals before yesterday's games, were taking an unexpected 41 to 21 shellacking at the hands of the Detroit Lions.

The Chicago Card-Pitts lost their eighth straight game at Comiskey Park, the Cleveland Rams being the victors this time, 33 to 6.

The Boston Yanks, playing at home, won their second game of the season, defeating the Brooklyn Tigers, 13 to 6.

Basketball Starts At 'Y' Wednesday

New Castle Church league and the Industrial league will start the 1944-45 basketball season at the "Y" on Wednesday night, with three games on the card, the first game at 7:30 o'clock.

The schedule for Wednesday as announced by Darro Baptiste, physical director and league supervisor, is as follows:

Church League
7:30 o'clock—Epworth vs First Baptist.
8:15 o'clock—Johnson Bronze vs Radiators.
9 o'clock—United Engineering vs Universals.

McNutt Favored To Win Over Carter

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Van (Boob) McNutt, hard-hitting New York middleweight, was favored today to extend his winning streak against Philadelphia's Johnny Carter in the scheduled 10-round windup at the Quaker City Met tonight.

Joe Pug, New York, and Ray Morris, Wilmington, are matched for the eight-round semi-final, while a triplet of six-rounders pack Gene Burton, Scranton vs. Buck Streator, Collingswood, N. J., Burl Charity, New York, vs. Joe Falco, Philadelphia.

No Mail Orders For Army-Navy Football Tickets

Tickets For Big Baltimore Classic Will Be Sold Only From Baltimore Booths

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—(INS)—The Treasury Department announced today that tickets and war bonds for the December 2 Army-Navy game in Baltimore will be sold only in downtown Baltimore booths in an effort to discourage attendance from other cities.

Tickets for the gridiron classic, transferred from Annapolis, Md., after a week of deliberation on how to boost war bond sales without hampering wartime travel, will cost a flat $4.80 for all seats—plus purchase of a war bond in denominations not yet announced. No standing room will be sold, the treasury said.

No Mail Orders
Ted R. Gamble, director of the Treasury's War Finance Division, said the plan was to "encourage the sale of tickets only in Baltimore" but admitted that this did not close the door to outside attendance.

No mail orders will be taken. Tickets are expected to begin Monday morning in Baltimore, under direction of the War Finance Committee of Maryland and headed by Charles F. Wrightson.

Earlier the Treasury and the Navy Department issued a joint announcement listing various stipulations governing conditions of the ticket sale and game arrangements.

St. Vitus And St. Mary's Win

R. Paolone Scores Three Touchdowns; St. Vitus Leads In Catholic Loop

St. Vitus and St. Mary's were the winners in Catholic Grade School football league games Saturday, the former beating St. Joseph 23-0 and St. Mary's victory over St. Michael, 14-0. St. Vitus has scored 143 points against opponents' none. St. Vitus heads the circuit. Final games will be played next Saturday.

St. Vitus scored 14 points in the first quarter, 12 in the third and seven in the last quarter. R. Paolone scored three touchdowns and Sabino two. The extra points were converted by F. Paolone, Conti and Albus.

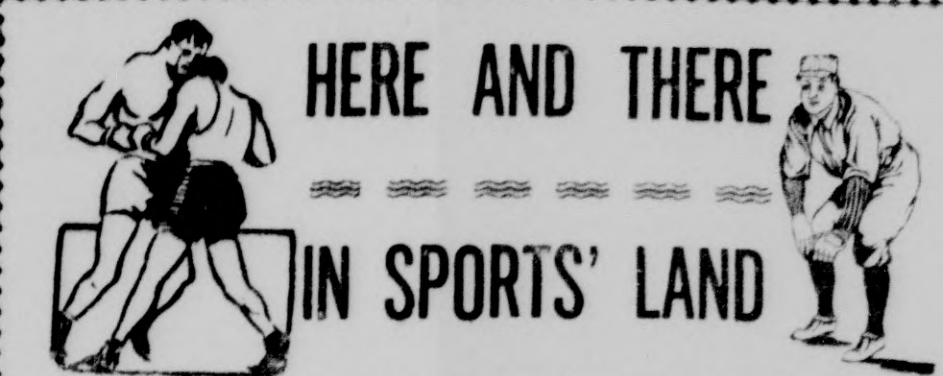

Paolone scored his touchdowns in the first period, once on a 30 yard end run and a few minutes later intercepted a pass and went for another touchdown. The extra points were made by Fred Paolone, Conti and Albus.

St. Vitus was held scoreless in the second quarter but came back in the third to score twice. "Fuzzy" Sabino took a St. Joseph punt on his own 10 yard line but it was put on the 50-yard line where he stepped offside. On the next play he crashed through center and broke loose for a touchdown but the attempt for the extra point failed.

Good Defensive Players
St. Vitus blocked a St. Joseph punt on the St. Joseph 15 and "Fuzzy" Sabino scored again on a reverse play. Fontana failed to convert the point. Early in the fourth period, Ralph Paolone scored again on a center plunge from the 15 yard line. Albus scored the extra point.

The Tardio brothers, Latsko, Davis, McAuley and McGovern played good defensively for the losing team. St. Mary's Shamrocks eased to a 14-0 win over St. Michael in the other league game at Union high. St. Mary's made their points in the first quarter through a long run by Murphy and a line plunge by Eddie Guinagh. Disson and Carrigan scored the extra points.

In the closing minutes of the game St. Michael went to the air with a series of passes that brought the crowd to its feet. Jurina, Presnar, Seinkner and Brimko played a fine game for the losing team.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

LOUIS ZAMPERINI, bomberier, Torrance, Calif., is believed dead. He was 25 when reported missing May 27, 1943, in the South Pacific. In his running days at Southern California he was a mile record-breaker and was with the U. S. team in the Olympics in Berlin in 1936. He almost created an international incident when he climbed a pole at Hitler's chancellery and captured a Nazi flag. After Hitler was convinced it was merely a boyish prank Zamperini was allowed to keep the flag. Nowadays other American boys are capturing Nazi flags much to Hitler's chagrin.

Don't ration courtesy. Politeness pays dividends is something worthwhile remembering. . . . Even C. Vickery, 54, Bradford, Pa., 30 years ago a pitcher in the Interstate League, died recently. . . . Joe Baksi and Corporal Buddy Knox, heavyweights, box in Pittsburgh, November 27. . . . Men take the defeat in good style but women grumble and argue when told there are no more cigarettes, a local tobaccoist reports. . . . Remember when Grandma smoked a pipe? She carried her "batter" in a small poke. . . . Oh, yes, we have seen women smoke cigars, too.

We've seen a lot of grapplers but those FBI agents who demonstrated defensive tactics or Ju Jitsu in city hall recently knew their holds. . . . Incidentally when Bill Piliant was told to place 100 chairs he remarked, "Gee, there's gonna be a Judy-Judy match." . . . Police have been known to often suffer attack by muley-tempered men and temperamental dogs. However "Socks" Welch was the first bluecoat attacked by a police auto. A new pair of trousers were torn badly and his legs scraped by a piece of metal which protruded from a door. . . . "Socks" was bitten. He realized the flesh would mend fine but the pants couldn't be mended but had to be waved at a costly price. Probably the city fathers will read this.

Racing in America doesn't mean a thing to Track Star Gunder Hagg's boss in Stockholm. . . . Invited to run here, Hagg can't come because his boss said: "I still hold that I can't do without Gunder during the approaching Christmas season." . . . Maybe Hagg will haggle his boss for a raise. . . . A Chicago store window sign: "No dogs allowed: This means you." . . . A young man who has no acquaintance with work is evading a duty. . . . Tony Zill is working in Niles. He was a rugged lightweight. He beat Battling Terry twice.

Fair Or Foul

BY LAWTON CARVER
(International News Service Sports Editor)
NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—The United States Golf Association packed up and moved out soon after the start of the war, with the result that the National Professional Golf Association probably will dominate the game for years to come, when it comes down to accomplishing things. By walking out at the first sound of the bugles and leaving the game to struggle as a sort of castoff, the U. S. G. A. miss the chance that the P. G. A. has accepted to keep golf alive and help the war effort.

True as it may be that the PGA is not entirely unskillful in its program, the fact remains that this organization has pitched into situation with an eye to the future and a multitude of deserving people have shared and will share in whatever they may be able to do. Service men for instance.

Have Raised Thousands
The PGA has promoted untold thousands in war bonds and in donations for the Red Cross through exhibitions by the leading professionals who have not been called into service and the organization now has a plan afoot for building a golf course at every military hospital in the United States.

If the surgeon-general and the war department approve this plan as part of the rehabilitation program for hospitalized service men every one of those golf courses will stand as a monument through the years to the vision of President Ed Dudley of the PGA and the men who work with him in the promotion of golf. They are promoting golf, but also a lot more things of much more importance besides.

WHY NOT SOONER?
In contrast to this constructive effort is the current attitude of official Washington in relation to the Army-Navy football game. No one will ever be able to explain satisfactorily why the great service class was not transferred early in the season to come other place besides Annapolis where it was to have been played on Dec. 2.

An early announcement that the game would go to Baltimore would have resulted in a helping hand for the war bond drive and would have eliminated last minute confusion. They say it is because of transportation problems, conservation of power and railroad cars, etc.

But they still run special trains to the race tracks or did through yesterday when Belmont Park ended the local racing season.

STOCK MARKET

TRADING DULL

Prices Hover Around Saturday's Close In Transactions Of Morning

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—The stock market was a dull, meaningless affair in early trading today. Prices hovered around Saturday's close and turnover dropped to a slim 125,000 shares in the first hour. One of the few market features was a rise in Loews common to another new high. Du Pont jumped a point to 155 on one sale.

Aviation stocks were quiet and easier except for Lockheed which netted a small gain. Steels and motors were sluggish with small losses offset by minute gains. Rails and rail equipments continued uninteresting. Utilities were a shade better on the average. Oils, coppers, and farm equipment attracted little interest.

The bond market was quiet and firm.

ST. VITUS Church

Forty Hours Close

Special Sermons Heard By Large Crowd At Impressive Solemn Devotions Sunday

Closing services of the 40 hours devotion at St. Vitus church came to a solemn closing Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Rev. Fr. Francis C. Streiff was celebrant. Rev. Fr. Joseph Pernatozzi, deacon, and Rev. Charles D. Galati, sub-deacon. Rev. Fr. Albert M. Inteso was master of ceremonies.

The litany of the saints was chanted, with Rev. Fr. John M. Unger and Rev. Fr. Ignatius Koller as the chanters. The Eucharistic procession was held with the sodality, altar boys and the clergy taking part.

But, Rev. Fr. Joseph Mastrangelo of Butler gave an inspiring sermon in English and Rev. Fr. V. Galliano of Ellwood City delivered the sermon in Italian.

Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament brought the services to a close.

Priests assisting in the sanctuary were Rev. Fr. Francis McGarvey, Rev. Fr. Fred Atkinson, Rev. Fr. James Keman, Rev. Fr. William M. Pisarcik, Rev. Fr. V. O'Donnell, Rev. Fr. Edward Pikulik, Rev. Fr. Francis Kuczyński, Rev. Fr. Francis King, Rev. Fr. Richard Paise of Pittsburg, Rev. Fr. Bernard Weyant of Villa Maria, Pa., and Rev. Fr. Nicholas DeMila.

One of the largest crowds ever attending the 40 hours devotion was present last evening. The intention was for a speedy and just peace. Forty hours devotion opened at the 9 o'clock Mass Friday morning and since then the Blessed Sacrament was exposed. Many devout entered the church to offer their prayers, especially mothers having sons in the service, many of whom are now serving overseas.

DRIVER IS HELD

H. M. Curry, R. D. 5, was arrested by city police Saturday about 9 p.m. when a car he allegedly operated struck one coming from an opposite direction and reportedly operated by Mrs. Paul Lindsey of Manor, Pa.

Chief of Police R. D. Bruma swore to an information against Curry charging he was drunk. The latter was committed by Alderwoman Margaret Orres pending a hearing, according to the chief of police.
